MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL — EDITOR

Faw-Sink Bridal Couple Extended Honors

Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Faw received at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street Friday evening from 8:30 until 10:30 honoring their youngest daughter, Miss Corinne Faw, and Charles S. Sink, Jr., who were married Saturday in a one o'clock ceremony at the Presbyterian church. A large number of friends called during the evening and were welcomed at the door by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Faw, Jr.

Receiving with the hosts and the honored couple were Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Sink, parents of the groom, Mrs. F. C. Forester and her two-houseguests for the week-end, Miss Hattie McLean and Miss Frances Jones, both of Winston-Salem, poured punch at two tables beautifully appointed in the bridal note. Sandwiches, individual cakes, mints, and nuts were served.

Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Brame. Others assisting in the entertainment of the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fonville, Jr., of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Smith. Mrs. Fonville is a daughter of the Senior Faws.

The bride's table, spread with a white Maderia cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, and decorated with white candles and Epergones of white flowers. At the close of the reception the bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Brame, after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. About the spacious room of the clubhouse and on the mantles were arrangements of white flowers and greenery.

On Friday Mrs. Forester, aunt of the bride, honored her with a small luncheon at the Forester home on D Street. Covers were laid for Miss Faw, Mrs. C. C. Faw, Mrs. W. A. Fonville, Jr., Miss Hattie McLean, and Miss Frances Jones, and the hostess. Following the wedding on Saturday members of the bridal party and the wedding guests, which included only members of the two families, were invited to the Forester home for refreshments.

A lovely courtesy extended Miss Corinne Faw prior to her marriage to Charles Shelton Sink, Jr., on Saturday, was the breakfast given at Hotel Wilkes, with Mrs. Gordon Finley, and Miss Lucy Finley as hostesses.

The long table was attractively arranged with two crystal bowls of large jonquils, place cards decorated with jonquils, and wedding bells, and a jonquil at each place. A delicious breakfast-lunch was served at ten o'clock, to fifteen guests, all members of Miss Faw's family, and wedding party, and members of Mr. Sink's family. The hostesses presented silver in her chosen pattern, to the bride-elect.

Millers Creek W.S.C.S. Meets

Millers Creek Women's Society of Christian Service held its monthly meeting Thursday night, March 16, at the home of Mrs. F. W. Greer near Millers Creek.

An interesting program was conducted by Mrs. Greer, assisted by members.

Following the business session a gift of China was presented to Mrs. Vance Owens, who was recently married. Delicious refreshments were served to the nine members present and a recreation period was enjoyed.

All members are urged to please attend the April meeting, which will be with Mrs. Cecil Kilby at Millers Creek.

The Fred Inscore Rook Club Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Inscore were hosts to the members of the Reverie Rook club at their home Tuesday evening, having guests for three tables. The high score prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Young. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of play, and the decorations and party appointments featured the Easter motif.

Pastime Club Met With Mrs. Sanders

Members of the Pastime bridge club and one extra guest, Mrs. J. W. Powell were entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Johnson Sanders at her home in Wilkesboro. Top score prize, in the game played at two tables, went to Mrs. Bob Kite and the second high score award to Mrs. Robert Gambill. Mrs. Arthur Lowe held the traveler's prize, and Mrs. Flake Cook was the winner of the bingo award. A dessert course followed play.

Mrs. Chal McNeil Entertains Her Club

The members of the Idlewild club along with a number of extra guests were delightfully entertained Saturday evening by Mrs. Chal McNeil at her home on D Street. Three tables were arranged for bridge in a colorful setting of mixed spring blossoms, and during the evening the hostess served a dessert course.

Top score prize for club members was won by Mrs. C. B. Eller and for the visitors by Miss Elizabeth Smith, of Charlotte, who was a houseguest for the week-end of Mrs. W. O. Absher.

CARD OF THANKS

We use this means to express thanks to everyone for their sympathy, kindness and for the many beautiful flowers during the death and funeral of Husband and Father.
