Miss McNeill Extended Courtesies

In continuing a round of interesting parties for Miss Elizabeth McNeill, who on Saturday is to be married to Joseph Henry Cook, of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. J. C. Jones entertained at two tables of bridge at her home on Trogon Street Friday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Ziliak for high score, to Miss Geraldine Caldwell for second high score, to Mrs. Walter Eller for bingo, and Mrs. M. B. McNeill held the traveler's award. Honor gift for Miss McNeill was silver in her pattern and a corsage of white flowers. A dessert course preceded play.

On Monday evening Mrs. Charles Ziliak gave a dinner party at the Wilkes Hotel with covers being laid for eight. The hostess presented the honoree with a lovely gift and a corsage of mixed sweet peas.

Courtesy for Tuesday afternoon was an informal tea given by Miss Sue Landon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Landon. Miss Landon received around twenty-five guests at four-thirty o'clock, and during the hour refreshments were served buffet style from the dining room table. Miss Landon presented the honoree with a gift and a corsage of pink rose buds. Pink roses decorated the table, and the same color note predominated in other flowers used about the home.

Mrs. Jack Swafford and Mrs. Boyd Stout were hostesses at a large card party given at the Woman's club house Tuesday evening, having guests for eleven tables of bridge and four of rook.

Miss Nellie Gabriel, bride-elect of Saturday, or R. H. Dillard, shared honors at the party, coming in for the latter part of the evening. Miss Gabriel was given china in her pattern, Miss McNeill silver, and both received corsages of sweet peas. Honor gifts were presented to Mrs. James Dalton, of Asheville, and Miss Anne Cragan, of Sanford, as out of town guests; also to Mrs. Charles Slink, Jr., the former Miss Corinne Faw; Mrs. Lomax Kilby, the former Miss Betty Summers, and Mrs. P. M. Williams, Jr., who prior to her marriage was Miss Dorothy Skinner, of Jacksonville, Fla.

In the game of bridge Miss Harriet Crutchfield was the winner of the top score, prize, in rook the prize went to Mrs. Isaac Eller, Jr., and Mrs. Mary Moore Hix was the winner in bingo. A color note of green and white was carried out in the dessert course served at the beginning of play, and mixed spring flowers made a colorful setting for the guests.

Gardner, Johnston Circles Combine Monthly Meeting

The Gardner and Johnston circles of the First Methodist church combined their monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the educational building of the church. At the close of the meeting the members of the Johnston circle presented Miss Nellie Gabriel, bride-elect of the week, with silver in her chosen pattern.

At the beginning of the evening Mrs. Edd F. Gardner led the group in a pledge service, since the meeting marked the beginning of the new year in the Society. Mrs. T. E. Cook and Mrs. Edwin Link taught the Bible study on "Women of the Scripture."

The circles met separately for a short business session with the chairmen, Mrs. Leo Anderson and Mrs. Richard Johnston, in charge. Hostesses for the meeting, the two circle chairmen, Mrs. Cook, and Miss Mary Caroon, served refreshments during the joint social hour to approximately twenty-five members.

Social Calendar

The monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday in Blowing Rock at the R. G. Finley cottage with Mrs. Charlie Smoot and Mrs. Finley as hostesses. All members are urged to attend and take their supper, which will be served in picnic style at seven o'clock. Following the supper Mrs. Finley will preside for a short business session.

Wake Forest Picks Tribble President

Wake Forest, June 5 — Wake Forest College chose its 10th president today.

He is Dr. Harold Wayland Tribble, 50-year-old president of Andover Newton Theological School in Massachusetts.

Dr. Tribble was unanimously elected at a meeting of the board of trustees of the Baptist institution, held prior to today's commencement exercises.

He will succeed Dr. Thurman D. Kitchin, 64, president of Wake Forest since 1930, who will retire July 1.

Tribble's selection was announced by Dr. C. C. Warren of Charlotte, chairman of an eight-man committee appointed last year to select Dr. Kitchin's successor.

In announcing Tribble's election Dr. Warren asserted, "I know of no man on earth who will do a better job of unifying our forces and leading the college in this crucial area of its history."

35 Considered

Warren added that the committee selected Dr. Tribble for the presidency "after due and full consideration of approximately 55 men."

The board of trustees is leaving to Dr. Tribble the exact date when he will arrive to assume his post. Dr. Warren said, "We hope he will be here for the opening of the coming Fall term."

Dr. Warren said he was notifying Tribble immediately of his election to the presidency and added, "We hope his acceptance will come through in a matter of days."

The board of trustees also adopted a resolution recommending that it intensify its campaign to collect $2,300,000 for its building program in the hope that construction of new buildings be initiated in Winston-Salem in the Spring of 1951.

In a general alumni association meeting, Henry Liles of Greensboro was elected president, succeeding Burgin Pennell of Asheville.

Tribble, a theologian, author, administrator, and teacher, delivered the baccalaureate address at Wake Forest two years ago and often has come here to attend sessions of the annual Religious Emphasis Week observances.

The roll top desk was invented about 1850 by Abner Cutler.

Flashers Get 18 Hits, Lose 13-10

North Wilkesboro last night collected 18 hits off Wytheville's pitcher Bartholomae but lost 13 to 10. Leading the hit parade was Bernie Loman with four and Ed Morton and Carter Lentz with three each. Alvis Corum started on the mound and was relieved in the third by Jackson. Wytheville amassed an early lead and the Flashers rallied for five runs in the ninth, but were unable to overhaul the Statesmen. Osniski homered for Wytheville. Loman had a triple, Dick Stockton, Lentz, Tom Daddino, Dave Davenport, Dick Biggerstaff and Joe Subbiondo collected doubles during the slugfest. The loss left North Wilkesboro in fifth place one and one-half games ahead of the last place Radford Rockets, who lost to Galax. Eskin won over Mt. Airy.
