M.G.M. Producers Praise This City's Premiere Reception

Recently North Wilkesboro was selected over hundreds of cities and towns for a premiere showing of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "Stars in My Crown," which was shown at the Liberty Theatre here last week.

Following is reproduced a letter from M. G. M. to Ivan D. Anderson, owner of Liberty Theatre, complimenting this community for reception given the premiere showing: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures. Mr. Ivan D. Anderson Liberty Theatre North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Dear Mr. Anderson: "Because of the appreciation of high quality motion pictures that has been demonstrated in the past in North Wilkesboro, we selected your theatre as one of the very few in the country to play a pre-release engagement of STARS IN MY CROWN.

"The results of the engagement clearly indicated that we were not in error when we selected the city of North Wilkesboro for a pre-release engagement, and we feel the attendance proved that your theatre caters to clientele that can and does appreciate the finer things in motion picture entertainment.

"Our sincere congratulations to you on the splendid manner in which the engagement was handled, and we hope that at some future date we will be able to again arrange for a premiere showing.

"Kindest regards."

Sincerely,
Jack Reville
Resident Manager.

Johnston County recently staged what is believed to be the first ham show and sale ever held by Negro farmers. Thirty prize hams weighing 602 1-2 pounds were sold at an average of $1.01 per pound.
