Final Pre-Nuptial Courtships For Wedding Party

Miss Elizabeth McNeill, who on Saturday was wed to Joseph Henry Cook, of Greenville, S. C., was honored at several delightful social events during the latter part of the week. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Dermont Smith and Miss Dot Shell entertained at bridge and a linen shower at the Shell home on C Street, having guests for four tables. High and second high score prizes in bridge were awarded to Mrs. Harold Snyder and Miss Mary Caroon, and in bingo Mrs. Lewis Johnson was the winner. The ice course served at the beginning of play was in a green and white color note. Mrs. Robert Boyd and Mrs. Bill Summerford, both of Lenoir, were out of town guests attending the party. The honoree received lots of beautiful gifts.

Courtesy for Thursday morning was the coffee given by Mrs. Worth Tomlinson at her apartment on Sixth Street, at which time she received about forty guests between the hours of eleven until one o'clock. Mrs. S. V. Tomlinson poured coffee and others helping with the entertainment of the guests were Mrs. J. A. Rousseau, Mrs. Archie Rousseau, Mrs. Lawrence Hunt, and Miss Frances Rousseau. Miss McNeill was remembered with silver by her hostess, Mrs. J. N. Davis, of Winston-Salem, mother of the hostess, was a special guest.

Miss Zelle Harris gave a dinner party at the Wilkes Hotel Thursday evening. Covers were laid for eight at a four course dinner. Honor gift for Miss McNeill was a corsage of mixed sweet peas and silver in her chosen pattern.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Crook and their daughter, Miss Mary Evelyn Crook, at the Woman's Club house on Trogon Street. Approximately thirty were present for the dinner, which was served buffet style and in candle light, including members of the wedding party and the out of town guests. During the hour piano music was rendered by Mrs. Fred Clark, of Charlotte, and assisting with the serving of the dinner were Mrs. W. E. Jones and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson. The Crooks presented Miss McNeill with a corsage and silver in her wedding pattern. The decorations and appointments throughout emphasized a color scheme of green and white with touches of a delicate pink.

Bridal place cards marked the guests' positions at small tables which were centered with a candle and tiny flowers, and on buffet table white candles gleamed in silver candelabras placed about a centerpiece of the pink and white flowers.

Final pre-nuptial courtesy for the bridal party was the wedding breakfast given Saturday at the Wilkes Hotel by Mrs. Jesse Crews, aunt of the bride, and Mr. Crews, of Winston-Salem. Others attending the breakfast were a number of out of town guests here for the wedding, which took place at five o'clock in the First Methodist church.

Dinner Honors Miss Howard And Mr. Lupton

Greenville — On Saturday evening at 7:30 at the Country Club, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collins, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collins, Jr. entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Jewel Howard and Mr. Theodore Lupton, Jr., whose marriage will be solemnized in June.

Guests were greeted at the door by the hosts and hostesses and then were invited into the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. Vance S. Harrington. The table was lovely, decorated in the traditional bridal motif of green and white. The centerpiece of magnolia blooms and madonna lilies, showered with gypsophylla, was flanked on either side by five branched candelabra holding burning tapers, decorated with tulle and gypsophylla.

Miss Howard was remembered with a corsage of white California asters and silver in her chosen pattern. Place cards were laid for approximately 45 guests. Out-of-town guests included: Miss Howard and Mr. Jack Howard, of Wilkesboro, Misses Lillian Raper, Mount Olive; Betty Austin, Boone; Virginia Tesh, Winston-Salem; Betty Ann Shaw, Weldon; and Mr. Al Coone, Pinnacle.

Another delightful courtesy extended Miss Howard while she was in Greenville was the linen shower given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Joe Lupton at the home of Mrs. T. B. Lupton on Library Street. Twenty guests were present and in the game of bingo Miss Sue Ann Lupton received a gift as high runner, while each winner was remembered with a small prize. Miss Howard, the honoree, received from her hostess a gift in her silver and a corsage of white carnations. The refreshments, were in traditional bridal colors, and on each plate was an attractive favor. A pink and white note was predominant in the flower arrangements placed about the room.

Irvin-Bentley Engagement Announced

Mr. J. T. Irvin, of Wilkesboro, announces the engagement of his daughter, Lula Katherine, to Claude Frederick Bentley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parks Bentley, of Pores Knob. The wedding will take place July 20th.

DOLLAR-A-POUND STEAK IS BACK AS MEAT PRICES HEAD UPWARD

Chicago, June 10—Dollar-a-pound steak is back in the nation's butcher shops and meat prices generally are climbing, a United Press survey in 18 cities showed today.

In addition, the Dun and Bradstreet index of wholesale food prices showed a rising pattern in the foods housewives must buy to feed their families.

The index rose 6 cents during the past week to the highest level since January 18, 1949. Included in the foods showing increases were flour, lard, cheese, coffee, cocoa, eggs, and potatoes.

The swiftly advancing rise in retail meat prices, experts said, stemmed chiefly from a rising market in the kinds of cattle that find their way into most mass-market shops.

Pork also was making a comeback after hogs sank to the lowest prices since OPA last Winter. Lamb was high too.

The Agriculture Department at Washington said that the prices of most meats would remain high through the Summer, although a few types may decline for a time. The department added that "further advances are likely later."

The United Press survey showed that the average price of meats in the 18 cities had increased substantially since a year ago, with the biggest rise shown in the last month.

FOX DOG RETURNS HOME

Gaffney, S. C.—"Fly," a speedy fox dog, returned from hunt, 16 months after it started.

Fly was shipped by express to her owner, J. B. Wood, from Marvel, Ala., where she had wandered after the hunt. The fox apparently got away.

Some beetles have been known to lift as much as 500 times their own weight.

Ex-OSS Man Charges Leak In State Dept.

New York—A former executive officer of the wartime Office of Strategic Services charged that a State Department "leak" siphoned top secret documents into the offices of Amerasia magazine.

O. C. Doering Jr., now a partner in a New York city law firm, issued a statement which he said was an answer "to criticism of OSS by an assistant Attorney General regarding the Amerasia case."

"The discovery that Amerasia had obtained secret Government papers was made through the alertness of a member of the OSS staff," Doering said.

He said the staff member, who was not named, read an article in the magazine which "set forth the contents of a secret Government document" he had prepared.

The OSS raid on the now defunct publication's office followed, Doering said, and five copies of the published secret document were recovered.

Saying that there was no indication that anyone with OSS was responsible for any breach of security, Doering added:

"On the contrary, they found clear indications that the principal cause of the leak was in the State Department because in the office of Amerasia they saw hundreds of other confidential, secret, and top secret, army, navy, State and other Government documents bearing a stamp showing that they had been obtained from the State Department."

The funds given of the American Cancer Society in 1947 represent an average of less than $65 per cancer death in the U. S.
