Mrs. W. M. Brown

In memory of Mrs. W. M. Brown, whom so suddenly God called away on Mother's Day. She left a host of friends to mourn their loss.

From over hill and plain, There comes the signal strain, It's music rolls along, The hills take up the song Of loyalty to Christ.

There are tears where a soul shared its sorrow, There are smiles where it helped eyes to shine. Faded names of the dearly departed In that little old Bible of mine.

We believe when the Savior reached down in the stall and said "Your work on earth is over," He took her soul to glory to live for ever more.

A FRIEND.
