June 14th, 1852. The Husketh Heirs.

BOUT thirty-five years ago, Nathaniel Huskth. (a one armed man) removed from the county of Granville, North Carolina, to the county of Logan, Kentucky, where he died, leaving only one child, whose name was Isham Husketh. Isham afterwar is became a Lunatic, and died in the Asylum at Lexington. Kentucky, leaving an estate of about $5000, which passed from the hands of his Committee into the hands of his Administrator. Isham left no heirs nearer than first cousins. At the instance of some of said heirs in North Carolina and Tennessee, as an attorney, I instituted suit and obtained a decree in the Circuit Court for Simpson county, to distribute the estate. . Some of the heirs have received their portions. The following persons, who are proven to be heirs, have not applied for their portions, viz: Lewis H. Kittle, Isham M. Kittle, Prudence H. Kittle, Naucy Carroll, William Husketh, Jesse Husketh, and Thomas Husketh. Now, unless the above named persons shall apply for their respective portions, on or before the first of September next, their portions will be decreed to the other heirs who have applied for and received their portions. Any of the above persons applying for their portions, must identify themselves as the same persons named in the decree; and to enable them to do so in a legal manner, either myself or P. H. Pageseau, Clerk of the Simpson Circuit Court, (Kentucky,) will give the necessary information and indeed in procuring the decree.
