MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE & TRUST COM-

THIS Company, as its name indicates, is upon the mutual principle, and embraces two disinct departments, to wit : Life Insurance and Trust departments. This attractive combination offers to Policy holders double the ordinary security, without destroying their right to a full participation in the entire profits of the Company. Premiums will be received, in cash, either annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as may be agreed upon at the time the Policy is issued. In the TRUST DEPARTMENT, or Deposit Sys tem, the payments made to the Company are entirely optional with the Depositor, as regards, the amount and the time at which they are made. A party may pay in as much or as little, (not less than one dollar,) and as often, as may be convenient for him, without any obligation upon him to continue his payments, -and may withdraw them at his pleasure.

So that, on the plan of this Company, there is created at one and the same time an assurance payible at death-afund available in sickness-and a provision for old age. See Pamphlets furnished by the Company.

but it is thought the following will be sufficient to interest those who need similar benefits. Extract, from the Hon. Beverly Tucker, late law professor at William and Mary, Va: "Fourteen years ago, I was left by a most malignant fever, with a diseased Liver, a disordered digestion, and a Constitution in ruins, my physicisn permitted me to hope, that with care and prudence I might have a few years of precarious existence, and assured me that the least indiscretion would be fatal. I met with your anti-dyspeptic pills, and confiding in the accompanying certificates of responsible gentlemen whom I happened to know.— I took them according to direction. The result is, that I now eat what I please, do what I please, sleep soundly and enjoy life as much as any man living. For this, it gives me pleasure to say, you have my thanks, and to add the assurance of my high regard?"

Rxtract, from the Hon. George E. Badger, L.L. D. United States Senator, who has used these pills for more than 20 years: "I do not hesitate to recommend them as an agreeable, safe and efficacious remedy in dyspep-tic affections and believe them myself to be the best antidyspeptic medicine ever offered to the public."
