Dr. Gale's Anodyne Opium, T is a fact well known, that many people are accustomed to buy and use without the advice of a physician, many of the preparations of Opium, as Laudanum, Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial and the like.

The effect of these medicines is generally known and while they are admitted to possess Anodyne and so lative properties not to be dispensed with, they are still liable to serious objections in many cases and doubtless are often mischievous in their

The new chemical preparation, now submitted to the public, is believed to possess all their virtues and even more, without being chargeable with their bad effects-neither is this opinion hastily ounded, nor based on limited experience-after a trial of some years in which this remedy has been placed in the hands of eminent physicians, and ried indeed under every variety of circumstance, and in all appropriate cases of disease it is still believed to stand unrivalled, not only for its rare nedicinal varieties as a preparation of Opium, but for the sfety with which it may be administered.

The Ladies' Saloon was first established about altered and enlarged to make room for Mr. AD. DINGTON'S increasing trade, until now the old Store can be no longer enlarged he has recently built for himself one of the largest Stores for his business in the United States. The new Store is four times as large as the o'd one, so that hereafter we shall be prepared with the goods to do the largest Boot and Shoe trade done in the State of Virginia. (A complete description of this splendid new Store will be given about the 15th of July, when it will be opened.) At the commencemeent of each season we have on hand from $80,000 to $100,000 Worth of BOOTS, and SHOES, while we constantly receive heavy shipments of goods during its continuance. Our success has indeed been signal and why " because we have always conducted our business on equitable principles, mutually enefitting the seller and the buyer. This success is truly flattering to us, insomuch we intend to make still larger additions to our stock, and therefore invite all Country Merchants and Shoe dealers to come and deal for the future with us at the new Store. HUNDREDS OF MERCHANTS Have already availed themselves of our invitation, who return and buy more goods at each season saying, "they can do better at the LADIES' SALOON Than they can do at the North." We guarantee to sell at least 5 per cent less than others, and to sell goods which will suit the retail trade of Virginia. and North Carolina Merchants, better than any they may purchase elsewhere. The stock consists in part of
