AN ORTHODOX Doc .- Attending meeting last Sabbath evening for the first time at Dr. Chandler's church, in this town, I was much amused to see a large one-eared dog stalk up the aisle near the commencement of the services, and quietly stretch bimself out on the pulpit platform. After taking a survey of the congregation, as if probably to see who were absent, he dropped his head and fell into a sound sleep, perhaps thinking that was city style. I afterward learned that this dog was strictly sectarian in his views, having after mature deliberation settled down upon the mode of worship as adopted by the Congregationalist order and chosen the Meadow church as his regular place of meeting.
