An Appeal.

To all Gentleman Visiters to my Establisment, to sustain me in matters of principle.

THE leading motive of my starting a Vineyard vice, that all good citizens, not to say christians,

And my only purpose of procuring ardent spirits in any quantity is for making wine. Therefore, and for many other reasons, I might selling any more spirits, as a medicine.

Pray, go elsewhere or to some appropriate the abelition sons of Temperance to monopolize the west, a small dwelling, and in the middle a tor his employers all the money profits of liquor stable for horses, &c. sales, is compelled to sell to all, saying "they want liquor as a medicine." And hence, as from most reliable information. not only the vice of drunkenness, but that of lying, also, is fearfully advancing in the State of cious effects of that tyrannically despotic law .- by the Dower, is not subject to Dower. But I am not bound in any way to sell spirits unless, as a doctor to feel my patients' pulse, or otherwise to judge it necessary to prescribe spirits In which case I can by law exact a fee; at least, mutil a certain Raleigh clique of doctors carry out their purpose as tyrannically despotic and monopolizing as Maine law society plots, against primary inherty, or make no doctor fees collectable in the State unless under law license from them. Ac- October, 1853.

cording to Maine law despots no sales of liquors out from their agent ANOTHER APPEAL. To ladies, as well as gentlemen; and that is not to prevent me or my family from spending the Sabhath otherwise than as a divine institution, preparatory to the eternal Sabbath of rest in Heaven.

Or, if not having church, or religious exercises appropriate to the day at our own house, any or all but one or a mere house-keeper may have the christian privilege of attending church elsewhere. A hint to the really wise and genteel is always "sufficient." And I am truly thankful for hundreds of visiters of this character weeks past or so far in Vineyard visitations of the season. Most respectfully towards all concerned.
