> METROPOLITAN. Female Seminary.

THE subscriber proposes to open, on the sec-ond Monday in January next, in the City of Raleigh, a High School for young ladies, under the above title.

For this purpose, he has purchased the proper-ty formerly owned, and employed for school pur-poses, by the late Rev. J. J. Finch. It is situated on Halifax street, a few hundred yards north of Gloves, very superior kid, bl'k, white and fancy the Capitol, in a pleasant and desirable part of the city; sufficiently near to enjoy all the advantages of the city, and sufficiently retired to be free from most of its annoyances.

He has also purchased an unimproved lot, in the Suspenders, Dressing Gowns, &c.. In fact, everything necessary for a gentleman's omplete outfit. and commodious buildings; with special reference ance. Gentlemen furnishing their own goods to be manufactured, may rely upon receiving the same ital of the State; its accessibility by means of railroads; the high character of the institutions it already contains; and its growing importance, giving promise of permanent presperity, are all cir-cumstances which cannot be overlooked by parents desiring to give their daughters a polite and an ac-complished education. The subscriber will be assisted in the duties of the school by Mrs. McDow-bracing all the branches usually taught in High Schools or (olleges, and diplomas will be granted to those who complete the course. Certificates of graduation will also be given in Music and other Ornamental Branches, to those who attain the requisite proficiency.

The sessions and vacations will be arranged correspond as nearly as practicable with those of Wake Forest College, in order that parents patron izing both Institutions may have the advantages of sending their sons and daughters together.

TERMS PBR SESSION.

Primary Department, ...... $10 Preparatory do ......15 Classical and Scientific Department ...... Music on Piano and Guitar including

Contingent Expenses, ...... Payable promptly at the end of each session. No deduction for absence, after a pupil has entered, except in cases of protracted sickness. The above terms are as moderate, it is believed, as the expensiveness of living and the facilities, which will be provided, will justify. But experience has taught that Parents, who properly appreciate the education of their children, are more solicitous about the character of the instruction imparted, than about the price paid for it. Hence the prime object will not be to make the school as cheap as possible, but to render the in-
