No. 121 North Tenth st., Philadelphia. Nov. 22nd, 1858. METROPOLITAN.

Female Seminary.

THE subscriber proposes to open, on the sec-ond Monday in January next, in the City of Raleigh, a High School for young ladies, under For this purpose, he has purchased the property formerly owned, and employed for school pur-poses, by the late Rev. J. J. Finch. It is situated n Halifax street, a few hundred yards north of the Capitol, in a pleasant and desirable part of the city; sufficiently near to enjoy all the advantages of the city, and sufficiently retired to be free from most of its annoyances He has also purchased an unimproved lot, in the same vicinity,—one of the most eligible and beau-tiful sites in the city, upon which he intends, as soon as circumstances will admit, to erect large and commodious buildings, with special reference the liberal encouragement heretofore extended to him, he hopes, by strict attention to their wants, female school. Its proverbial healthfulness; the bjects of interest, which attach to it, as the capital of the State; its accessibility by means of railroads; the high character of the institutions it already contains; and its growing importance, giving promise of permanent prosperity, are all circumstances which cannot be overlooked by parents lesiring to give their daughters a police and an accomplished education. The subscriber will be assisted in the duties of the school by Mrs. McDowell and all the facilities necessary to a first class school, will be promptly provided. The course of instruction will be thorough; em. bracing all the branches usually taught in High Schools or Colleges, and diplomas will be granted to those who complete the course. Certificates of graduation will also be given in Music and other Prnamental Branches, to those who attain the requisite proficiency. The sessions and vacations will be arranged to correspond as nearly as practicable with those of

Wake Forest College, in order that parents patron izing both Institutions may have the advantages of ending their sons and daughters together. TERMS PER SESSION. Primary Department, $10 Preparatory do15 Classical and Scientific Department25 Music on Piano and Guitar including - the use of Instrument, Other Ornamental Branches at the usual prices. Board including washing fuel, &c., Contingent Expenses, Payable promptly at the end of each session. No deduction for absence, after a pupil has entered, except in cases of protracted sickness. The above terms are as moderate, it is believed, as the expensiveness of living and the facilities, which will be provided, will justify. But experience than about the price paid for it.

Hence the prime object will not be to make the school as cheap as possible, but to render the instruction as efficient as posisble.

The subscriber flatters himself that the experience he has had in teaching young ladies and the
