HE subscriber proposes to open, on the sec-Raleigh, a High School for young ladies, under the above title For this purpose, he has purchased the property formerly owned, and employed for school purposes, by the late Rev. J. J. Finch. It is situated Silk, cotton and merino plain and fancy on Halifax street, a few handred yards north of the Capitol, in a pleasant and desirable part of the city; sufficiently near to enjoy all the advantages of the city, and sufficiently retired to be free from most of its annoyances. He has also purchased an unimproved lot, in the same vicinity, -one of the most eligible and beautiful sites in the city, upon which he intends, as soon as circumstances will admit, to erect large and commodious buildings, with special reference to school purposes. Many circumstances conspire female school. Its proverbial healthfulness; the objects of interest, which attach to it, as the capital of the State; its accessibility by means of railroads; the high character of the institutions it already contains; and its growing importance, giving promise of permanent prosperity, are all circumstances which cannot be overlooked by parents desiring to give their daughters a polite and an accomplished education. The subscriber will be assisted in the duties of the school by Mrs. McDewand close their accounts, either by cash or note, ell and all the facilities necessary te a first class school, will be promptly provided. The course of instruction will be thorough ; embracing all the branches usually taught in High Schools or olleges, and diplomas will be granted to those who complete the course. Certificates of graduation will a so be given in Music and other

Ornamental Branches, to those who attain the requisite proficiency. The sessions and vacations will be arranged to correspond as nearly as practicable with those of Wake Forest College, in order that parents patron izing both Institutions may have the advantages of sending their sons and daughters together.
