

STATE FAIR, 1864.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

THE SECOND ANNUAL FAIR OF THIS SOCIETY will be held at Raleigh, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of October.

REGULATIONS: Members of this society, and all who may be come such as the time of the exhibition, by the payment of $3 to the Treasurer, will be furnished with a badge of membership, which will admit the member and the ladies of his family, and the children under 15 years old, to the grounds during the hours of public exhibition.

Exhibitors who contend for premiums are expected to become members of the State Agricultural Society, and must have their animals or articles properly entered at the office, on or before 10 o'clock, Tuesday, the 17th of October; so that catalogues of the articles exhibited may be properly arranged and published before the grounds are opened for public exhibition.

Animals or articles admitted within the grounds for exhibition must be labeled with the name and residence of the owners.

No animal, implement or other article, for which a premium is offered, will be entitled to said premium, though being the best or second best of the kind offered, unless such articles shall be deemed by the judges of sufficient merit to deserve a reward.

No one subject shall receive two premiums by the awards of different committees of judges at the same fair, unless when one is offered expressly as an additional premium.

The decisions of the judges of awards will be regarded as final, in every instance of their legitimate authority. For directing and restricting premiums, claimants or awards, will be disregarded or reversed by the Executive Committee.

All reports of the judges to be valid, must be delivered to the Executive Committee for examination, by the afternoon preceding the day for announcing the awards of premiums.

Premiums awarded but not claimed within three months thereafter, will be regarded as donations to the society.

Stock brought to the Fair for sale, will have an enclosed list adjoining the Fair Grounds which they can be kept at the expense of the owner.

Articles manufactured in the State, when brought in competition with foreign articles, will take precedence, other things being equal, and the foreign article will rank as second in the list of premiums.

The Chief Marshal, with efficient aids, will be in attendance during the hours of exhibition to keep proper order.

A fine band of music will be in attendance each day during the hours of exhibition.

An efficient police will take charge of the grounds during the night.

Admission fee—for a carriage $1, for a buggy 50 cents; for a single seat 25 cents; children and servants half price.

THE SHADOW OF LIFE. We have rarely met with anything more beautiful than the following, which we find in the New York Mirror, of a recent date: "All that live must die: Passing through Nature to Eternity."

Men seldom think of the great event of death until the dark shadow falls across their own path, hiding forever from their eyes the face of the loved ones whose living smile was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the great antagonism of Life, and the cold thought of the tomb is the skeleton in all our hearts.

THE RALEIGH REGISTER.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 2, 1854. Republican Whig Ticket. FOR GOVERNOR, ALFRED DOCKERY, OF RICHMOND. ELECTION ON THURSDAY, AUGUST 3d.

TICKETS! Send in your orders for DOCKERY TICKETS. We will send them by Mail, free of all charge except that for postage.

A FULL VOTE-A WHIG VICTORY. If the Whigs come to the Polls in their strength, on Thursday, locofocoism will not have a foot of ground to stand upon in North Carolina.

What the Whigs, then, all do their duty? Who will neglect it, when a single vote is so important? We hope not one. It is culpable negligence—nay, it is treason, for a man to say that "they can get along without my vote."

What the patriotic People of North Carolina, who have so often repudiated the doctrine of secession, say to this announcement? If it does not open their eyes to the rash, mad, and desperate game, which the leaders of the locofoco party, headed by that arch disunionist, Thomas L. Clingman, are playing, then would they sleep on, if one were to rise from the dead and warn them of their danger!

Keep it before the People, that Thomas Bragg has announced himself in favor of the doctrine of secession. He did not dare to do this, to come out, openly, with this nefarious doctrine in the Centre or the East, but kept back his real opinions, to ride successfully on the back of Clingman!

Just as we expected! We call the attention of the People to the fact that the organ of the locofoco party in this State publishes an account of the passage of the "Home-stead Bill" through the Senate, without one word of comment!

WHIGS OF THE CENTRE! We greet you on the prospects of success to our cause, which are breaking in upon us from all parts of the State!

STAND FIRM, WHIGS! No one can read the last number of the "Standard," without seeing that the enemy wavers, and that it requires but a few more volleys to make our victory certain!

TAKE HEED, WHIGS! The "Standard" says "in a few more days and the most important election ever held in North Carolina will have to be decided!"

GEN. DOCKERY.

He has done his duty like a true man and patriot, as he is! Met at the beginning of his journey, and followed up in this same spirit to the present time, he has nevertheless kept himself with a degree of fearless independence, candor and ability, which has elicited the admiration of his friends and the respect of those of his opponents who have the honesty and magnanimity to do justice to an adversary.
