her tron A tual Observation THIS work comprises the personal adventures of the author in the l'acific, which extend oa period of five years. It is divided into Three ts, to which is subjuined a valuable and inter-but I., which may be regarded as introductory us parrative that follows, records a six mouths mence on board an American whaler, in relawhich, the details of ship duty, usually uninting, have been studiously avoided; while a ministion of incidents, serious and humorous, beented in attractive form, impart an air of rosance to the otherwise sombre shadows of the Parts II and III , containing the more material abject of this narrative, give a graphic descripa of a free-and-easy life at the Sandwich, the eorgian and Society Islands. Glowing descripions of romantic scenery, rambles through palmrores, yachting among isles, coralines from reefs lagoons, evergreen valleys, snow-capped ountains and volcanoes, transport, in imaginain, the reader to the azure skies and sweet scenrigales of the tropics. Points of character have een sketched in bold outline, and the lights and salows of Polynesia life are vividly portrayed; mbracing the feasts and past-times of the natives, heir battles mythology, and all the more promitent features, of semibarbaric life. An interesog chapter on Missions has also been appended, though the whole plot is presented in a fasciating dress, it will be found choice alike in sentiment and diction. It is believed, therefore, that connection with the Appendix and Illustrations, will prove a valuable addition to our literature

With respect to the Appendix, its first portion is Glance at the Present Condition of Polynesia," thibiting, in a concise form the geography and assification of groups—their structure, natural reductions, population, physical appearance and Mellectual capacity of the natives their habits d language-government and social conditions essurces and relations with the civilized world, and steam navigation of the Pacific-in short, ev-Thing of interest pertaining to this division of

VALUABLE PLANTATION ON THE PEE DEE FOR SALE. THE undersigned, intending to remove to the State of Arkansas, offers for sale his PLAN-ATION in the county of Richmond. The tract contains about 1200 acres, of which at least 500 is rich bottom land, on the Pee Dee and Little Rivers. The remainder is undulating and hilly, but a large part productive. The hilly land is as healthy as any in the county, and sufficiently near the bottoms to make it quite convenient as a place of residence. The Improvements consist of a small dwelling in the hills, with summer cabins for the neg oes, and a well of excellent water. There is a good road, of easy grade, leading from the summer place to the valley, with a bridge across Little River. In the valley there are a half dozen substantial negro houses, stables and barns of ex:ellent quality. In addition to this, there is a fine Mill for Corn

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES, HICH are the only Sewing Machines of any utility which can be used without making the owner liable to a suit for infringement of patented pirvileges, are still sold at, REASONABLE PRICES

UNQUESTIONED RIGHT.

Having termined our legal controversy with Elias Howe, Jr., and procured his full license to use his invention, there is not the slighest claim that our machines infringe any other patent.

The right to use the machines which we have sold, and shall hereafter sell, is unquestionable. We own ten distinct patents of Sewing Machines. covering all the nice points of the invention, and all the machines of other manufacturers infringe one or more of them. Our patent securing the spring whereby the cloth, &c., is held to the feeding apparatus by a yielding presure, is infringed by all the machines now offered in the market -Those who buy the inferior and practical machines, are hereby distinctly apprised that we shall compel them to pay us for the privilege of using them, Our legal rights will henceforth be rigidly enfor-

THE IMMENSE SUPERIORITY of Singer's Sewing Machines has been complete'y established They are of universal applicationthe same machine doing all kinds of work, and doing it perfectly. They are not only superior in contrivance, but unequaled in mechanical finish. They perform all work required and continue to do it with out getting out of order. We desire to call attention particularly to our new MACHINES TO SEW WITH A SINGLE THREAD which by ample trials have been proved superior to all others for stitching linen and all very thin fabrics-also for sewing leather either with a waxed thread or silk-and for quilting linings .-We are also prepared to exhibit and sell embroidering machines, producing an entirely new and very beautiful result. Machines of extra size. both shuttle and single thread, may be had for a small difference in price. These are found to be very popular. Machines for hat binding, stitching carpet bag handles, and any other peculiar work, will be supplied at short notice. Machine Needles, Silk Twist on spools, Three
