Gazetteer of the United States. DITED BY T. BALDWIN AND J. THOMAS. M. D. With a new and superb Map of the United States, Engraved on Steel. Above 1200

oages, 8vo. The publishers take pleasure in announcing the completion of this, the most elaborate, comprehen sive, and perfect Gazetteer of the United States, that has ever issued from the press. In its preparation, no considerations of expense or labor have been allowed to interfere with a work designed to be as perfect as possible in every department. and in all of its details. Nor have the successive issues of other Gazetteers, hurried through the press to claim the market, tempted the publishers to offer their book before all the ample Census (of 1850) and other material in the hands of the Editors were fully digested and accurately arranged. When this Gazetteer was first announced, 800 pages, or, at the most, 600, were designed as the limit of the book. But so vast was the amount Said lot is situated in the South-eastern corner of of matter accumulated by the personal labors of the Editors and their assistants, as well as merly used by Will. H. Haywood, jr., deceased, as though the active efforts of several thousand Correspondents in all parts of the United States, the work has swelled to near 1300 pages. The amount of new matter which it contains, all of a recent

ASTONISHING CURE OF SORE LEGS AFTER NINE YEARS STANDING. Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. W. Langley, of Huntsville, Yadkin County, North Carolina, U. S. dated November 1st. 1858. READ HIS OWN WORDS

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, Sir:-It is not my wish to become nether is this letter written for the more sake writing, but to say, that your Ointment cured a of one of the most dreadful cutaneous dissanthat flesh is heir to, and which was considered all who knew me, to be entirely beyond the reac of medicine. For nine years I was inflicted wit one of the most painful and troublesome sore less that ever fell to the lot of man; and after tryin every medicine I had ever heard of, I resigned despair all hope of being cured; but a friend brought me a couple of large pots of your Oint ment, which caused the sores on my legs to heal and I entirely regained my health to my agreeable surprise and delight, and to the astonishment of my friends. (Signed) W. J. LANGLEY.
AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD

BREAST, WHEN NEARLY AT THE POINT OF DEATH. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Durant, New Or-leans, November 9th, 1853. To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 88, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York. Dear Sir,—It is with heartfelt gratitude I have to inform you that by the use of your Ointment and Pills, the life of my wife has been saved. For seven years she had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (not of a cancerous nature.) I was told that nothing could save her: she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when in the short space of three months, they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who knew us. We obtained your Medicines from Messre. Wright & Co., of Chartres-street, New Origans. I send this from "Hotel des Princes," Paris, al-though I had written it at New Orleans, Before we finally left, at that time, not knowing your address at New York.

(Signed) The Pills should be used conjointly with the Oint-ment in most of the following cases:

Bad Legs Contracted and Stiff Jointa Lumbago Sore-throats Bad Breasts Stiff Joints Piles Skin-diseases Burns Fistulas Scurvy Rheumatism Bunions Gout Salt Rheum Sore-heads Chilblains Glandular Scalds Ulcers Chapped hands Swellings Sore Nipples Wounds
