COPELANDS' GALLERY.
Come, Ladies fair, and Gentlemen, who want a likeness true,
Come to my Portrait Gallery, and I will give it you.
I'll paint your portraits large as life, and very cheap will make 'em.
And when they're done, if you don't like 'em—
why you need not take 'em.
I also take daguerotypes, and I'll hurry you,
and if you'll come and sit for one, I'll not your patience worry.
My light is soft, very strong—my fixtures all
complete.
And all I ask you, is, to come along and take a seat.
Come bring your wives and little ones, and bring your pretty daughter.
And patronize a Native—now I really think you ought to do so.
My rooms you'll find above the Store of Samuel
Young, (Esq.)
All carpeted, and neat, and clean and warmed up with a fire.
From sitting till the close of day, you'll find me
at my station.
And now, to one and all, I give a cordial invitation, to come and examine specimens of my skill in portraits and daguerotypes. Hoping these few lines will find the public enjoying the same great
"blessing," I subscribe myself, very respectfully,
O. P. COPELAND.
P. S. The subscriber continues to give lessons in drawing and painting, and will visit the surrounding country, when desired to do so, for the purpose of painting the portraits of families.
