To all and every one who uses us

We have heretofore endeavored to conduct our business during the winter, in the most expeditious and convenient manner.

This request has been attended to by many a past, and the large amount still due in notes and accounts will render it absolutely necessary, if they are not paid before our departure, to place them in the hands of our attorneys.

Whatever possible, we have granted every individual asked for by our customers; but the assortment of finally closing up our business in this city renders it imperative for us to call upon them as we do now.

E. L. HARDNER.
