day of December next, about six hundred acres of land, between seventy five and one hundred miles from Raleigh, a quantity of Shooks, one four horse Wag-

IMPORTANT SALE--HAVING DE-TERMINED to remove South, I shall, on Tuesday the first day of December next, offer for sale the property on which I now reside, known as Prospect Hill, containing One Thousand Acres, situated in the upper part of Halifax County, North Carolina, four miles north of Beaufort, and nine miles South of Lenoir on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Two hundred acres of the land is immediately on a navigable stream of water; the balance being in upland virgin forest and cleared land. The land is well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn, wheat and tobacco.
Two miles South of the dwelling and adjoining the tract is situated a good Flour and Grist Mill, of a four mile North of the Grain Mill, at which the produce of the mill is immediately on a navigable stream of water. The dwelling house, in one of the best built houses in the country in the State, the construction of which cost the subscriber upwards of $10,000. The house is light, airy and every convenience. Nature never furnished a more beautiful scenery than surrounds the buildings. At the same time and place I will sell two acres of land adjoining the above mentioned, the one containing 400, the other 200 acres, the land divided in arable soil and original forest. The three will be sold separately, according to these lands are situated is generally fertile, healthy, intelligent, and wealthy in climate, also for its healthiness. No neighborhood can boast of better soil.

I shall also offer for sale eight fine Mules, two splendid harness horses, a few stock, crop of corn, flax, tobacco, implements of husbandry, and things pertaining to a farm generally. The real estate and valuable property is offered for sale privately until December at public auction without reserve. Terms made known on day of sale.

IMPORTANT--A REMEDY HAS AT-last been discovered, which is a certain and infallible remedy for the cure of Dandruff and other diseases of the Hair. The following interesting communications are from gentlemen of the most distinguished names, and show that every one that "Rosser's Essence of Bay Leaves" is just what it pretends to be--a remedy suited to the cure of the Hair. Every effort will be made to give it from well known and reliable sources.
PETERSBURG, Aug. 16th, 1857.
"Dear Sir, I have had your "Essence of Bay Leaves" for the removal of dandruff, and with entire success--less than three bottles effected a complete cure; and in consideration of which I can substantially recommend it in the highest terms.
CHAS. W. ARNOLD.

FROM A WELL KNOWN SOURCE.
PETERSBURG, April 24, 1857.
"Dear Sir, It gives me pleasure to state that the bottle of Bay Leaves I procured from you for my wife, who was losing her hair very rapidly, afforded immediate relief; and I am satisfied from the trial she gave that your preparation of Bay Leaves is an excellent remedy in all cases for which it is recommended.
To Col. T. H. ROSSER, Petersburg, Va., and

THE STARVING.
I heard the starving man
I who have chanted all my years
Their grief and wrong, their hopes and fears Whose lowly voice and pen,
Through weary days and sleepless nights,
Were consecrated to their rights--
I hear their plaint again!
I list their story o'er--
Their slow and desperate daily tread--
Their muttered watch-words--"Death or Bread!"
I see their hungry eyes!
And well I know that, where they come,
Their wives and babes, in misery dumb,
Out drive them with low sighs.

Thus, then, I plead their cause!
They march not forth to wrong or spoil;
They claim but sufficiency for their souls,
Ere with their famishing grones
They will not lift their maddening hands,
Nor treat the night with sacred brands,
Nor have our fuming laws.

But, some they will be light!
To Heaven's light--from squalid pen,
From dwellings worn than heavily dress'd,
From hunger, cold and bright!
Each smokes eye--each pallid cheek-- Shall thro' with voice of thunder speak-- O Christian! is this right!
