AN ENGLISH AND FRENCH SCHOOL YOUNG LADIES, Nos. 3 and 5 West 38th St., Murray Hill, two doors from Fifth Avenue,

NEW YORK, WILL re-open, after the Summer recess, on Wednesday the 14th of September, 1852. The Institution occupies the highest, and in all respects, the most desirable location in the city. The buildings, p anned expressly for the School, are warmed by means of hot water furnaces, thus securing the two-fold advantage of a larger influx of pure sir and a bland Summer-like temperature. A la ge airy room, occupying one entire story is set apart for Calisthenic exercises and the cult.vation of personal graces.

The Principal is assisted by ladies of rare qualifications for their vocation. The ablest masters are employed for French, Italian, German, Piano Forte, Harp and other accomplishments. Among his numerous friends and patrons, the Principal refers to Rev. Robert Baird, D. D., Rev. Thomas De Witt, D. D., Rev. John McClintick, D. D., J. Ma rion Sims, M. D., Hon. James Harper, and Rev. N. 2 Graves, (late Principal of Warrenton Female Collegerate Institute, N. C.) of New York; Rev. William M. SUMMER RETREATS.

Bedford Alum and Iodine Springs. Near New London, Virginia.

THE WATER OF THE BEDFORD ALUM AND Iodine Springs, rank among the first Mineral Waters of Virginia, in the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhosa, General Debility, all diseases of the Urinary Organs, Cutaneous Diseases of long standing and Scrofula in its werst forms. This water has no equal. Its repid and permanent cure of all the diseases to which Females are peculiarly liable, its invigorating and strengthening properties in all cases of Debility, Wenkness of the Back, Loss of Appetite, Shortness of Breath, &c., &c., has given this water a reputation claimed by no water in the Meuntains of Virginia. Our best physicians testify to the efficacy of this water, and hundreds of our most prominent eitizens who have visited the springs and used the water bear testimony to its virtues. Recent improvements have been made, and new buildings erected for the accommodation of guests, and every attention will be paid to invalids stopping at the Springs. These Springs are located on the line dividing the counties of Cawpbell and Bedford, within a short distance, and in full view of the Mountains. The "Peaks of Otter" crowning the beautiful Blue Ridge, can be reached in a few hours from this point. The air is pure and invigorating, and the visitor from the lowlands of Virginia, and from the more Southern States, would rest as securely here as he would in the midst of the mountains. PIEDMONT SPRINGS. STOKES COUNTY, N. C. THESE well-known and popular Springs, situated in the County of Stokes, 2 miles from Danbury the county site, claim a share of the attention of the health and pleasure-seeking public of North Western Caro lina, and the State. The Proprietor has effected great improvement in the arrangement of his House, and is now able to accommodate 300 boarders with ease and comfort. The Scenery of 'his section is regarded as unsur-passed in beauty by any to be found in the State.— Though not so wild, broken and romantic as that of the extreme West, there is a quiet loveliness about it, charming to the beholder. The Springs gush immediately from the base of one of the noble hills composing the Sauratown Mountains; the most prominen and attractive peak of which is Moore's Knob, distant 4 miles. In the vicinity of the Springs is situated, also that beautiful natural curiosity THE CASCADE, A visit to which always repays the trouble. Every possible convenience for the amusement and comfort TRAVELING FACILITIES. The Proprietor will run a tri-weekly line of Coaches from Salem during the season, thus insuring to visitors

Tennessee Railroad, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, VIRGINIA. VISITORS to this celebrated Watering Place, get off the Cars of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad at Shawsville, where they are met by First Class Stage Coaches, and conveyed over a good road to the Springs. We design the accommodation of this place to be equal to any in the mountains; and hope, by polite and accommodating attention, to make all who favor us with a visit, pleased and contented. The Mineral Properties of this Water are admitted by all who are acquainted with the Springs, to be more powerful and beneficial than any other known in the Union, and whilst all who are seeking health, are benefitted by the use of this INVALUABLE WATER, seekers of pleasure will also find as many sources of amuse ment here as at any other place in the State. The buildings are new and comfortable, su rounded by beautiful mountain scenery.
