PROSPECTUS OF The Church Intelligencer!

HE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSES TO PUB-LISH in the City of Raleigs, 12 North Carolina, a weekly newspaper designed to advance the interests of the Episcopal Church at the South, and to diffuse iatelligence concerning its labors and its progress. In this enterprise, he has reason to hope for the approbation, and to some extent the aid of the Bishops of Tennessee, Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Texas, and the Missionary District of the Southwest. In each of these dioceses he expects to have a resident contributor to the columns of his journa', who shall give information to its readers of any event of interest occurring in the diocese to which the writer belor ge.

The benefits of ruch a paper, if well conducted, will be acknowledged to be great, when it is recollected that in all these dioceses just enumerated, constituting in themselves a mighty and rapidly growing empire-there is not a single newspaper expressing the senti-ments and recording the contemporaneous history of the Episcopal Church—that what is known by its clergy and people living in this extensive and prosperous region on these subjects is gathered mainly from news-papers published at remote points at the North in which the interests of these dioceses and the especial duties of the churchmen therein are comparatively obscure and neglected subjects. In the meantime the principles, the past bistory and present condition of the try and still more frequently misunderstood, and there is no organ and no opportunity by which, publicly and effectually to refute such mispresentations and correct such mistakes.

By means two of a newspaper in these discess, conducted in a religious spirit and or judiciou principles, the members of the church might be assisted not only in the general improvement of their spiritual state, but especially in the performance of the peculiar duties imposed upon them by the constitution of society in the southern country—duties which lie very near the hearts of many of them. the hearts of many of them. It is furthermore intended to enrich the columns of Prosbyter of the Diocese of N. C.

We approve of the publication and circulation of a newspaper for the purposes and on the principles set forth in the Prospectus of the Church Intelligencer, and we cordially recommend it to the clergy and laity of our dioceses, designing ourselves to make use of its columns for the communication of intelligence to them. columns for the communication of intelligence to the JAS, H.
