HOT SPRINGS, VIRGINIA,

The Great Thermal Watering Place of the American Contin Nature's Remedy for Chronic Diseases. THE Hotel at this place will be open for the recep-tion of visitors on the first of June next. In the umber of its MINERAL SPRINGS, the variety o their temperatures and their extraordinary remedial powers in many of the most serious, painful and dan-garous CHRONIC DISEASES that afflict the human des, this watering place offers to INVALIDS suffer ing from the maladies in which THERMAL WATERS are indicated means, for the recovery of health which can be found at no other in the United States. Number of the Baths-Diseases in which they are indicated .- Effects of the Waters taken internally, or used as a General

The supply of Mineral Water is most abundant, and there are TEN BATHS constantly supplied with fresh water from separate springs of various tempera-tures, from 78° to °106 Fahrenheit. In all cases of cute disease, the hot baths are contra-indicated, but the chronic forms of Rheumatism Diseases of the Liver,

Chronic Diarrhoa, Gout. Old Injuries to Paralysis, free from Muscles, Joints and inflammatery action. Tendons. inflammatery action. Spinal Irritation, and Some Diseases Peculiar to Females, the remedial properties of the waters of the VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS are unrivalled. Their ALTERA-

TIVE AND CURATIVE POWERS are unsurpassed by those of any other Mineral Water on the face of the Many persons afflicted with the diseases enumerated above, in forms which had resisted the most skillful medical treatment, and had rendered the lives of the sufferers alike wretched and useless through long years of pain, have been restored to perfect health by their use. And in many of these cases not only medi cal science, but other Mineral Springs of the highest reputation had failed to afford relief.

Of the vast number now suffering with such mala-diss, there are few, indeed, who would not besither cared or greatly relieved by these waters. When drank, they are auti-acid, mildly aperient, and freely diuretic and disphoretic. Used as a general bath, they equaliz an unbalanced circulation; and restore to the differen important organs of the system, when torpid, that nat ural and healthy sensibility without which they cannot perform their respective functions, and the beneficial ac-tion of all remedies will be diminished or destroyed.— They act powerfully upon the Liver, Kidneys and kin; relax contracted tendous and rigid muscles; rovse up suppressed secretions; excite the action of the absorbent vessels; exert a salutary influence over the uterine system, and often relieve, in a short time, excruciating pain, caused by serious and long-standing disease.

Diseases of the South. In no class of human maladies have these water been more eminently successful than in these which STATES.

"In that state of the body termed CACHECTIC

In obstinate TORPOR OF THE LIVER and in be enlarged condition of the LIVER and SPLEEN which so frequently follows the bilious fevers of the South, their great value is unquestionable.

In many cases, where the Secretion of Healthy Bile had been almost totally suppressed for years, a course of these waters has fully restored it. And in many other cases, where the Liver was not only world and engorged, but ENLARGED, its normal condition has been brought back, the engurgement and enlargement have disappeared, and the sufferers have been restored to perfect health here. la Chronic Diarrhea, depending, as that dis ease generally does, upon a deranged and imperfect as ion of the Liver and Skin, the powerful influence which these waters exert upon a both these important organs makes them a remedial agent of unequalled power.

Enlargement of the Prostate Gland. Cases of this disease have been thoroughly cured a the Hot Springs-the powerful excitant action of the waters upon the absorbent vessels enabling them some times to cure enlargements of this gland, as well as those of the Liver and Spleen.
