Many persons afflicted with the diseases enumerated above, in forms which had resisted the most skillul medical treatment, and had rendered the lives of the sufferers alike wretched and useless through long years of pain, have be n restored to perfect health by their use. And in-many of these cases not only medi cal science, but other Mineral Springs of the highest reputation had failed to afford relief. Of the vast number now suffering with such maladies, there are few, indeed, who would not be either cured or greatly relieved by these waters. When drank, they are anti-acid, mildly sperient, and freely diuretic and disphoretic. Used as a general bath, they equalize an unbalanced circulation; and restore to the different important organs of the system, when torpid, that nat-ural and healthy sensibility without which they cannot perform their respective functions, and the beneficial ac-tion of all remedies will be diminished or destroyed.— They act powerfully upon the Liver, Kidneys and Ekin; relax contracted tendons and rigid muscles; rouse up suppressed secretions; excite the action of the absorbent vessels: exert a salutary influence over the uterine system, and often relieve, in a short time, excruciating pain, caused by serious and long-standing disease. Diseases of the South.
