THE GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS. PUBLISH NOW MY ANNUAL PROS. PECTUS of the Daily Globe, and The Congressional Globe and Appendix, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congress will meet on the first Monday of next December, when I shall resume publishing the above-named pa pers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the kind of matter they will contain.

THE DAILY GLORE will contain a report of the De bates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters, equal, at least to any corps of short hand writers in this or any other country. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, verbatim, ten thou sand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds sever thousand five hundred words spoken an hour. When he debates of a day do not make more than forty ave columns they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with 'uch editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX WI contain a report of all the debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book from, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages .-The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowleded to be the cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words it contains. The coming session will, without doubt, be an un usually interesting one, because the Debates will, in a elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates o
