OF THE AD VALOREM BANNER. A NEWSPAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

T. W. ROYSTON'S.

514 Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va.

A SOON AS THE NECESSARY ARhave them completed early in January, 1861, I will commence, in the City of Raleigh, N. C., the publica-tion of a weekly Newspaper, to be called the "AD VA-LOREM BANNER." It will be published in quarto form, on good paper, and with new materials throughout.

The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my going fully into the policy and principles which will gov-ern my course as an Editor, and I can now only give the outlines briefly:

First.-The BANNER will be, in many respects, different from any other paper published in the State, of the South. About half of it will be devoted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays Biographice, &c., in which department I will be aided by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper with the political principles of truth, justice and equality.

Second .- I am a Democrat-one of the Old Guard -and under present circumstances a Uinen man. 1 shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threate, cliques, combinations, nagnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party and not be seduced by the "zeal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into a Know-Nothing lodge! Third .- I helped to fight the battle on a great pop-shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right—Equal Taxation. We have equality at the ballot-box: let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also. Fourth. - While I shall adhere to the old land-mark of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of cancuses and conventions when raied by a minority, and an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now ular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North-Carolina; and now I generally the case. Fifth.-The BANNER will speak for THE PEO-PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair dealing and a fair expression of the public will.

Sixth—If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commensurate with ing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom on account of the villainly of any man or set of men.

Seventh.—As occasion requires I shall use a set of editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasoning to sait imes and circumstances. TERMS OF THE BANNER: $2 a year, payable on receipt of the first number.

Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy for one subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy for one Linseed Oil,

Tanners Oil, Please obtain what names you can, and send

It will be seen that Douglas was the real comnetitor of Lincoln. It is amasing what a run Douglas made 1 Opposed by nearly every Senator, Member of Congress, Governor, Lieut. Governor, or ex-Governor, by the President, his candidate, and the pat-ronage of the Administration—and with a Dem-ocratic candidate (Breckinridge,) in the field, nominated by "all the Democratic States," the

The New York Courier and Enquirer, leading Repulican journal, favors the repeal of the Northern Nullification laws,—compensation for slaves which the people in any county or Sate refuse to surrender-restoration of the Missouri compromise, &c. The New York Republican State Central Commttee have just adjourned at Albany after a brief session. The important events of the day occupied in part, the committee. Their resolutions recommend efforts at conciliation; but they do not advise any change from the position taken in the Chicago Platform. The Albany Evening Journal, the leading Republican paper in New York, in view of the political troubles which have followed Lincoln's election, proposed recently that the republican party ought to make certain concessions to allay the excitement, among others the restoration of the Missouri compromises. The republican electors met at Albany, on Tuesday, and, it is said, condemned the Journal, which paper receded from its position.

Journal's suggestion. Ex-President Pierce has written a letter to a friend, on the national crisis, which is published in the Washington Constitution. In it he says: "I trust the South will make a large draft upon her devotion to the Union, and be guarded by the wise moderation which the exigency so urgently calls for. Can it be that this flag, with all the stars in their places, is no longer to float at "home -abroad and always as an emblem of our united power, common freedom and unchallenged security? Can it be that it is to go down in darkness, if not in blood, before we have completed a single century of our independent national exisnce? I agree with you that madness has ruled the hour in pushing forward a line of aggressions upon the South, but I will not despair of returning reason, and of a returning sense of constitutional right and duty."
