First.-The Banner will be, in many respects, diff ferent from any other paper published in the State, or the South. About half of it will be devoted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays Biographies, &c., in which department I will be aided by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper with the political principles of truth, justice and equality.

Second .- I am a Democrat-one of the Old Guard -and under present circumstances a Uinon man. shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threats, cliques, combinations magnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party and not be seduced by the "seal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the seen of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into a Know-Nothing lodge!

Third.—I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North-Carolina; and now l shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right—Equal Taxation. We have equality at the ballot-box: let us have it at the Fourth. - While I shalladhere to the old land-marks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of caucuses and conventions when ruled by a minority, and an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case.

Fifth.—The BANNER will speak for THE PEO-PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair dealing and s fair expression of the public will.

Sixth —If Mr. Lincoln or any one else violates the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commensurate with ing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom on account of the villainly of any man or set of men.

Seventh.—As occasion requires I shall use a set of editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasoning to suit TERMS OF THE BANNER: $2 a year, payable on receipt of the first number.

Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy for one no 28-1m. TOTICE ... THIS IS TO CERTIFY that I am no longer agent for any person, and, in the future, I shall conduct business on my own acount. In winding up the Agency that has existed for the past three years, it is necessary that all persons owing bills on the old score should settle up without delay, and for that purpose I have made them out to date, without respect to persons or property. Hoping that none of the above delinquents will give me unnecessary trouble, I beg leave to subscribe myself

Your Humble Servant, J. B. FRANKLIN.
P. S. In retiring from the above Agency which I have conducted with a great deal of success for the past three years, I would return my warmest thanks for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon me, and I promise for the future to so deal and conduct my business that I shall at least enlist your warmest good wishes, and to a very great extent your future patronage, for I shall be better able and more willing to keep on hand the largest stock of every article in the Confectionary and Fancy Goods line that has ever been kept in Raleigh.
