SHORT TIME SINCE I ISSUED A PROS-PECTUS for a Weekly newspaper, to be called the AD VALOREM BANNER, to be published in the City of Raleigh. N. C. The encouragement I have received, far exceeding my most sanguine hopes, induces me to issue this prospectus, the object of which is to inform the public that I will, on the 1st of January, 1861, commence the publication of the BAN-NER, not only WEEKLY, but also DAILY. So far as the Banner takes sides with political parties, it will be Democratic; but with regard to internal Improvements, a change in our system of Taxation, and the preservation of a Constitutional Union, it will know no party, but will be the zealous advocate of all these, repudiating secret caucuses, (where the spirit of the Constitution is often violated,) packed and partial Conventions, and the scheming of would be po-litical demagogues and tricksters. I shall be just and TERMS OF THE DAILY BANNER. One copy 1 year, in advance, TERMS OF THE WEEKLY BANNER. One copy 1 year, in advance

The Raieigh Register.

FOR THE REGISTER. MESSES. EDITORS :- For the first time in my fe, though now an old man. I undertake to adiress, through your columns, a few words to my fellow-citizens, especially to the members of the Legislature now in session. The period has arrived, which was apprehended by the Father of His Country, when one section of our country is arrayed against the other, and we have reason to fear, if something is not done, and done soon, to allay this strife and restore harmony to our councils and our country, that we must fall, disgraced before the world, as a people glorying in their civilization, refinement and Christian institutions, and yet unfit to govern themselves, and to agree on the simplest propositions of morals and good government. One section, rather one party, has invaded the rights and privileges of a section of country to which they were bound, by solemn constitutional obligations, to respect, and, in case of necessity, to defend. This proposition no one can deny. The aggrieved section, driven to madness by the continued attempts of this party to interfere with their rights and deprive them of their privileges in the Union, are now pursuing a course which must appear rash and cruel to those in the same section, who are not disposed to act with pre- would be to compromise their honor. And now, cipitation in a matter in which so much is in-volved, not only in regard to themselves and their should our Legislature propose a State Conven-tion, let us for once; Oh! let us for once, dear children, but also to the cause of liberal and free government throughout the world.

North Carolina is now so situated that some action on her part is necessary. This State is now, and always has been, sincerely devoted to the Union of the States-and I believe she is so regarded both North and South. North Carolina has always been faithful to her engagements to her sis-

We have some reputation for honesty and patriotism; let us see whether something may not be done to restore harmony and union by that State which was the first to declare its independence of Great Britain. If we fail in our efforts, Vest and Neck Chains, we shall have the consciousness of having done our duty; and if (which may God in mercy avert) a dissolution of this noble Union of States must terests, as a State, as best we can.

It is proposed, in the Legislature, to call a Con- | Collar and Sleeve Buttons, | Table and Desert Speons, vention of this State as soon as practicable, and Belt Buckles, this measure is advocated by many patriotic and Armlets and Pencils, Union-loving men; but it is opposed by many | Spectacles and Thimbles, Gravy & Mustard Spoens. both in and out of the Legislature, who are equally patriotic and devoted to the Union. In the present agitation we, at the to call at my store and see for themselves. My Stock South, very unjustly put down as opposed to our interests, not only all who voted for Mr. Lincoln, but the whole Northern people. Now, as recent developments clearly show, not only those who voted against Mr. Lincoln, but many, very many, of those who voted for him, are disposed to do justice to the South when the matter is fairly before them. Many good, honest and patriotic men were led away, in the excitement of the times, to adopt measures and give totes which, on soler reflection, they no doubt will regret, and be ready when an opportunity is given, to remedy. Bu they ought to be allowed time for reflection before we are hurried into revolution, and a bloody and fatal one to both sections. What, then, can North Carolina do in the present state of affairs? Sho, with Virginia and the other border States, can do much. Instead of calling a Convention at present, let the Legislature appoint two or three commissioners to confer with other States, either in their Conventions or Legislatures, or with similar commissioners, to ascertain what their wishes and views are, and, if possible, to settle upon some plan for the adjustment of our difficulties, satis-

We have it in our power to appoint men who on account of their high character for probity, intelligence and patriotism, would be listened to and respected in any part of the world, and from their wise and judicious counsels with our sister States. the happiest results might be anticipated. I might mention Judge Ruffin, Gov. Graham, Governor Swain, Gov. Morehead, Judge Badger, W. N Edwards and others, who would command the confidence and respect of any body to which they

TO THE FREE-MEN OF N. CAROLINA.

DEAR FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS :--Will you permit an humble individual, whose age and physical debility would forbid his troubling you, (were he so disposed) with a long epistle, to address to you collectively, a few lines, particularly addressed to your sound sense and sober judgment, on a subject, perhaps ,the most important that has engaged the attention of intelligent and patriotic men since the formation of

You are aware, fellow citizens, that there are in our midst, those who are brging, and would "pre- ple-have eccasion to use: and furnishing, also a guide cipitate," us into the vortex of disunion, war, and bloodshed. It is true they attempt this, under best sources, being an improvement on all works of the pretext of asserting and defending our rights the kind formerly in use, and intended as a Companunder the constitution; but permit me to enquire, Constitution of North Carolina, and of the United fellow citizens, if we cannot better assert and States; an account of the principal Officers of the maintain them under the constitution, than to trample this sacred palladium of those Rights in the dust, and go out to sea, without compass, chart | When sent by mail an extra charge of 20 cents will

Again, fellow citizens, would it not be best to SELECTED STOCK OF FIN OLD PORT, wait a little, that we may ascertain some of the results and consequences of the precipitate and awful plunge of our late demented sister, South Carolina? Do not those of you that read discover that she is already awaking to some of the consequences of her rash and ill advised leap? Do not their leading spirits in convention assembled already disagree as to the cause that induced them to make the awful plunge?

And now, fellow citizens, suffer a few words of expostulation, and we are done. Would it not be best to await the final action of the Congress now in Session, and more especially the action of the committee of thirty three, and also the result of the labors of the great, the good, and the Patriotic Crittenden, and his compatriots, to restore peace and union to our once happy and still beloved country? Is it not a fact that many of the ultra-Abolitionists in the North and in Congress have lately manifested a disposition to make concessions for the sake of Union? Have they not agreed to repeal their odious nullification State acts, (miscalled personal liberty laws) which constitute the chief causes of complaint? And when this is done, had we not better "Bear the ills we have, then fly to others that we know not of."

But should two or three more of our sister States conclude to follow in the ranks of South Carolina, (to wit:) Alabama, Mississippi, and even Georgia, even then, fellow citizens, may we not hope that our good old North State, together with Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, and Tennessee, would form an impassable barrier between the North and the extreme South, so that the beligerents of either section should not pass to murder each other. In conclusion, fellow citizens, with regard to the calling of a Southern convention, we will urge no objection, provided those States be excluded which have so far committed themselves on the subject that to listen to reason and justice friends and Brothers, sacrifice Party on the altar of our Union, our country, and our constitution. May God direct us to pursue the right course.
