many fugitive poems, which—published anonymously presents them to the public—with others hitherto un-published—and his publisher would only sek for them a cordial reception—impartial criticism.

The Tract contains 350 acres, more or less, about 150 of which is cleared and in a high state of cultivation; the balance—about 200 acres—in origi-nal growth. The farm is about three miles from Raleigh, near the Fayetteville Road. On the pre-mises is a good dwelling house and all necessary out houses. This is one of the best tracts of land in the county, and owing to its preximity to the City of Raleigh, as well as the large amount of woodland, and the highly improved condition of the cleared land, is certainly one of the most valuable. Persons desiring to purchase are invited to call and examine the premises. Terms will be reasonable. , jan 23—3m ALBERT HINTON.
