SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 14, 1861.

LATE NORTHERN NEWS.

The Riehmend Dispatch supplies us with the following summary of news taken from late North ern papers : CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 .- In the Senate yesterday resolution expelling John C. Bre kinridge, of Kentucky, now an officer in the rebel army, was offered, but objected to by Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, on the ground that as Breckinridge had already resigned he could not be expelled. The resolution, however, was adopted by a vote of -yeas 36, navs none. The standing committees were then announced. They are mainly the same as at the last ses-Mr. Hale submitted a resolution, which lies over, directing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the presen: Supreme Court, and organizing another Court which will meet the requirements of the Constitu-Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution providing for the release of slaves confined in prison in Wash. ington. The subject was referred to the Commit-

In the House the negro question occupied a large portion of the session. Mr. Gurley gave notice of a bill to confiscate and declare free the and approved French CLOTH, DOESKINS, slaves of rebels, also providing for their apprenticeship to leval masters, and subsequent colonization. Mr. Hutchins, of Obio, offered a resolumaking any Garment or Clothing to order, in the most lution instructing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire as to the practicability and exp diency of acquiring in a "congenial clime," on any part of this continent, or on the adjacent islands South of the United States, a right to colonize and protect free regroes who may emigrate thereto. The resolution was adopted.

between those high functionaries: The readers of our daily of yesterday morning may have been surprised to find no allusion to the topic which excited most interest at the Fede ral Metropolis—namely, the reported disagree-ment between the President and the Secretary of War with regard to that portion of the report of the latter which treats of the use to be made of the slaves of Confederates. Other journals had information on this subjec'; we had none; simply because, while their Washington dispatches respecting it were allowed to come through in due course, ours was suppressed by the Government censor in the Washington telegraph office. Having received it by mail, we give it now as part of the history of the times, simply remarking that we do not understand that it was suppressed for lack of truth, bu rather for excess of it.

THE SUPPRESSED DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The call of the roll had carcely ended in the House, when the temper of he reople was strikingly manifested by their representatives hastening, without delaying a moment for Presidential or other message, to pass a from 6 to 7 p. m. resolution emancipating the slaves of Confederates within the military jurisdictions. Before the vote upon it was recorded, a painful rumor pervaded the Hall that the President had taken open issue on this very question with Secretary Came ron, and had recalled from the Philadelphia post office the undelivered cepies of the War Department report which the latter had mailed vesterday for the use of the newspaper press. The city was filled with rumors of a breaking up of the Cabinet; and the influence of the revolution we are passing through, in attaching men to principles while weakening their hold on laws and forms, was everywhere strikingly and most suggestively conspicuous. The excitement occasioned by this Executive opposition to the necessities of the war and to the popular will, to-night sways the hotels and parlors of the city. The history of the difference between the President and the Secretary of War has at last taken this shape: The Secretary presented his report to Mr. Lincoln on Saturday, On Sunday afternoon he mailed it to the principal papers of the North and West, as is customary on the day preceding the reading of the message. On Sunday night the President, having found time to read it, found it not in his heart to agree with the Secretary's doctrine of the right and the duty to make a military use of the slaves of Con federates-to arm them, if necessary-and in all SCRIBER has in store a splendid assortment of of the Confederates to suppress to a rebellion. He sent for Mr. Cameron, and required him to embracing a variety of styles of patterns of Brooches, suppress this whole portion of the report, on the Breast Pies, Ear Rings, Bracelets, Finger Rings, Ladies and Gentlemen's Watch Chains, Pencils and Pens, and ill timed. The Secretary promptly and res-Cuff Pins, Miniature Lockets, Gold Thimbles, &c. olutely refused to suppress a word of it. The discussion between them was protracted. It ended as it began, the President insisting upon the alteration, and the Secretary respectfully but firmly refusing to change a syllable of his recommendations. A subsequent interview in the afternoon had a similar conclusion of debate, but a new and strange conclusion of Executive will. The Pres-ident announced his purpose to strike out the en-tire passage about the emancipation and arming of the slaves, before sending in the report with his Message to Congress. Mr. Cameron declared he should not recall or suppress the document in the hands of Northern and Western editors, and that the printers were at liberty to do with his report what they pleased. Which of the two copies will the people read and the army prefer?

SEIZURE OF A SCHOONER-BOLDNESS OF THE HESSIANS.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 10 .- The Charleston Courier, f this morning, says that the Lincoln fleet seized a schooner on Saturday; and that a steamer was seen passing on Monday with a floating battery or dock in tow.

The Charleston Mercury, of to-day, says the Yankee invaders are getting bolder. A small body of them were seen near Port Royal on Sun-

Census of North Carolina.
