RALEIGH, N. C. WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1862.

The Semi-Weekly Register. Published every Wednesday and Saturday morning.

The Weekly Register. Published every Wednesday morning, at $2.00 per annum.

Club Rates. Clubs will be supplied upon the following terms: For a Club of Ten to the Weekly, $30 per annum.

The Register Job Office. Is supplied with facilities for executing all kinds of Book and Job printing.

NOTICE TO SEMI-WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS. On and after the 1st of April, we shall strike from our list the names of all Semi-Weekly subscribers who have not paid their subscription.

OPERATIONS OF THE WAR. We are now in almost hourly expectation of hearing the results of several important battles. From what we can learn from our army on the Neuse, we are very sure that before the lapse of a week a battle pregnant with vast results will be fought.

FIGHT AT CUMBERLAND GAP. We learn from the Knoxville Register that the enemy attacked our forces at Cumberland Gap on last Saturday week, but were repulsed with supposed heavy loss.

GREAT BALL AT THE WHITE HOUSE. The Yankee papers severely denounce the great Ball recently given by that quintessence of parvenuism and vulgarity, Mrs. Abraham Lincoln.

ON SUNDAY MORNING, BETWEEN 11 AND 12 O'CLOCK, several persons in this city, and in different parts of the county, thought they heard the firing of distant artillery.

PLANT CORN AND POTATOES AND SOW OATS.

When we look at the map of the Southern Confederacy, and see how much of the grain-growing portion of it is in the hands of the enemy, we may well entertain the apprehension that there will be a great scarcity of provisions this year.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

We are indebted to Hon. W. T. Dorrance for a copy of the Supplemental Report of the Secretary of War to the Confederate Congress.

The first proposition for an exchange of prisoners was contained in a letter from Gen. Lee to Gen. Huger, under date of the 13th of February, 1862, which proposition was agreed to by our Government, and the basis of a cartel submitted, which was accepted substantially by the representative of the United States.

On and after the 1st of April, we shall strike from our list the names of all Semi-Weekly subscribers who have not paid their subscription.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.

The following message was sent into Congress on Friday last: EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, March 28, 1862.

There is also an embarrassment from conflict between State and Confederate legislation. I am happy to assure you of the entire harmony of purpose and cordiality of feeling which have continued to exist between myself and the Executive of the several States; and it is to this credit that our success in keeping adequate forces in the field is to be attributed.

FROM THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

A HISTORICAL PARALLEL—LET US HEED THE LESSON. The following message was sent into Congress on Friday last: EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, March 28, 1862.

I fear that the enemy will deceive us, who seem to be acting in some defensive part, which has induced us to many defensive operations. Heaven grant us one great soul! O, leading mind would estimate the best course from that which seems to us to be the want of it.

FOR THE REGISTER.

To you, who have so freely given your husbands, brothers and sons to the defence of our country, appeal to aid still further in so glorious a cause, by contributing to a fund for the purchase of a gun boat. The plan is worthy of the cause, and we have already many subscribers of our mothers of the Revolution, but much still remains to be done, and while our efforts can best be made, we should be ready to devote them to the service of our country.
