

LATEST FROM EUROPE. RICHMOND, July 25.—Baltimore papers of the 23d received. The Asia had arrived with Liverpool news to the 18th.

COMMODORE TATNALL ACQUITTED. RICHMOND, July 24, 1862.—The court martial convened to try the charge against Capt. Josiah Tatnall, growing out of the destruction of the steamer Virginia, justified the abandonment and heading of the ship under the circumstances, and awarded an honorable acquittal to the accused.

FROM KENTUCKY. RICHMOND, July 24.—Baltimore papers of the 23d say that the excitement caused by Morgan's movements in central Kentucky, continues. He destroyed an immense quantity of government stores at Lebanon.

FROM CHARLESTON. CHARLESTON, July 24.—The French war steamer Kinalinda, Capt. Le Cordet, from Port Royal, steamed past Fort Sumter into the harbor yesterday, and was at anchor off the battery. Her object is unknown.

FROM THE NORTH. We have reliable private advices from the North. The Yankee Government is massing all its available troops at or near Warrenton, and not at Winchester as stated, by way of a blind, by the Northern papers. The ninety and one hundred dollar bounties, with a pledge to support the families of absent volunteers, offered by Washington and Baltimore, have failed to stimulate enlistments. No recruits are coming forward.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA. It is believed in Eastern North Carolina, that a re-organization has taken place among the several thousand runaway negroes on Roanoke Island. It is said that, becoming dissatisfied with the harsh usage experienced at the hands of their new masters, they took advantage of an opportunity presented while the Yankees were at dinner, and seizing the stacked arms, fired into them and killed several. The Yankees, recovering from the panic into which they were at first thrown, took their guns and anchored almost every negro on the island.

LATE FROM THE NORTH. THE NEW YORK STOCK AND MONEY MARKETS. In New York on the 19th inst. gold advanced 1/8 and finally closed at 118 3/4. Bills on London rose to 13 1/4. The last quotations were 129 to 131.

LATER FROM EUROPE. ST. JOHN'S, NEW PUNDELAND, July 18.—The steamer City of Washington, from Liverpool, has been here since four days ago. The Paris correspondent of the London Herald thinks that France entertains very serious intentions of interfering to end the civil war in America.

General Sherman's advance into Kentucky—another victory—capture of Cynthia—great excitement. CINCINNATI, July 18.—A man came into Boyd's on the Kentucky Central railroad, this morning, and reports that the town of Cynthia, 66 miles from here, surrendered at five o'clock yesterday to the rebels after a half-hour's fight. He says he saw Morgan and shook hands with him.

FROM THE REGISTER. RALEIGH, July 24th, 1862. I have received the following sums of money for the use of the sick and wounded of the N. C. Troops: Mrs. Thomas D. Meares, $11; Mr. Crowder, $5; Mr. Orourke, $10; Major Will R. Cox, $250. The Major was wounded in the battle of Richmond, but so slightly as not to require him to leave the field.

GENERAL HALLECK WITHDRAWN FROM THE COMMAND OF THE SOUTHWEST. CORINTH, July 17.—General Halleck has given up the command of the army of the Southwest. He has issued a general order complimenting the troops for their gallantry and conduct. The Philadelphia Inquirer says: General Halleck was some days ago invited to visit Washington to confer with the President upon the various military operations in progress in the several sections.

CONCENTRATE AND INCREASE. [From the New York Express, July 14.] The guerrilla operations in Tennessee and Kentucky, and the noisome operations at Baton Rouge with 1,500 additional men, show two things more, and one more—That the diffusion of our forces, as in Virginia and elsewhere, is a military folly, and—That the 300,000 additional men called for will not be enough to conquer, hold and occupy the territory necessary for us to restore the Union.

THE YANKEE ARMY—DOCTORS WILL DIFFER. The New York Post's Washington correspondent writes as follows: It is thought here (Washington) that there is nothing to prevent a speedy advance of the army of the Potomac upon Richmond if its leader is so disposed. The fact that the Confederates have fallen back upon Richmond is thought to indicate a new plan of operations.

STRENGTH OF MCCLLELLAN'S ARMY—OVER 150,000 MEN SENT TO HIM BEFORE THE FIGHTS. Wednesday last was a lively day in the United States Senate, and in the scramble of the bill about McClellan's force again out. From official statements it was shown that 150,000 men were sent to McClellan before any engagement had taken place before Richmond.

After the whole of a night this whole army of the Potomac retired, except in front of Washington. The evidence further stated that the President assigned the Navy Department as much as he could with the plan, but Gen. McClellan objected because he feared the arrangements for landing had not been made.

Under such circumstances, we appeal to the public to know that even the soldiers who have straggled from their colors, and are now wandering through the country, whose defence they have abandoned, and to whose cause they are a disgrace.

Under such circumstances, we appeal to the public to know that even the soldiers who have straggled from their colors, and are now wandering through the country, whose defence they have abandoned, and to whose cause they are a disgrace.

The same writer continues: I tell you this army is exhausted and cannot recover from the physical effects of that retreat in one month! It is disheartened and lacks confidence in somebody; although it does not, know whom. An advance now, without heavy reinforcements, would be inevitable defeat.
