

THE LATEST NEWS

LATER FROM THE NORTH

The Richmond Herald has received the New York Herald of Friday, the 17th instant. The Congressional election in Pennsylvania has resulted in a loss to the Republicans of four members, with one doubtful. In Ohio the Republicans lost seven members, and three are to be heard from. A dispatch from Cleveland says the Democrats clean from 12,000 to 25,000 majority for their State ticket.

The Baltimore American of Saturday afternoon has been received here. It says: "All our information, as well as dispatches from headquarters, indicate that the army of the Potomac has commenced its grand march into Virginia." In addition to the advances upon Charlestown from Harper's Ferry, it was announced yesterday that Gen. Woodbury's division had also crossed the Potomac, and occupied Thursday night near Keyville. The indications are that the enemy will not have to wait long before they are again met by the army of the Potomac.

Gen. Schofield has telegraphed to St. Louis that he has driven the rebels into Arkansas. Capt. Wm. J. Haden, U.S. Navy, died Wednesday night in Brooklyn. The loss in Rousseau's division at Perryville was 465 killed, 1563 wounded, 161 missing. Vorhees re-elected to Congress in Indiana by 2500 majority. In New York Saturday forenoon gold sold at 130 1/4, a further decline.

THE BATTLE OF CORINTH

TOPEKA, Oct. 17.—Paroled Confederate soldiers, just arrived here from Luka, say that our wounded in the battle of Corinth have all been sent to that place, and are now well cared for. They say there were 700 in all, of the Northern army, and in the whole of this fight will not reach more than 1,500. The Federals say that there were 300 of our men killed, and that they had over 3,000 wounded, and could not tell how many killed. The Corinthian Yankees say our men fought more like devils than men. They also admit a total rout in Kentucky by Bragg's forces, and say that Nashville will soon be relieved or evacuated.

THE CAMPAIGN IN MARYLAND

[Correspondence of the Savannah Republican.] WASHINGTON, Va., Oct. 2. The falsehoods of the Northern press, and the error which prevails even among intelligent persons in the South, would seem to call for some further observations in regard to the campaign in Maryland. Before proceeding with these observations, however, it may be well enought to remark, that the army returned from Maryland with feelings far different from those with which it crossed the Potomac. The reception accorded to the troops was not so cordial as many had expected it would be. There was a wide diversity of opinion in those sections through which we passed, and many of the Unionists were imprudent and offensive in their declarations of their sentiments. The effect of all these developments has been to cool the ardor of the Confederates in behalf of "My Maryland," and to render them indifferent to her fate, if not hostile to her people. Indeed, so strong has this feeling become, that many of the regiments would receive an order to return to Maryland with bitter repugnance.

THE BATTLE AT PERRYVILLE, KY.

Special Dispatch to the Constitution. HARRISBURG, KY., Oct. 15, via Knoxville, Tenn., 17th. Gen. Bragg's first pitched battle in Kentucky took place at Perryville, on the 8th inst., ten miles from here. The enemy had been following us from Bardonia in force; he also threatened Frankfort. Withers' division was sent forward to support Kirby Smith, while the divisions of Cheatham, Buckner, and Anderson were detached to give battle to the foe in the rear. Our line of battle was on the right and left of the Pike, and commanding the only accessible route, crossed with artillery at 6 o'clock, A. M. Gen. Bragg and staff reached the ground about 9 o'clock. At 1 o'clock, the disposition was made for the fight. Our right awaited in force. Cheatham and Buckner were posted to meet it. At 3 o'clock they advanced in splendid line, with Gen. Bragg's order to push along the whole line to close quarters. For one hour and a half the enemy maintained his ground bravely in the face of a murderous fire of artillery and musketry. Our troops fought like heroes until the enemy began to falter, when with a shout, our boys moved forward and drove them three or four miles, entirely off the field. In the meantime, an attempt on our left had been repulsed. We captured 21 pieces of artillery and 5 or 600 prisoners, but for want of horses only 8 pieces were brought off. The returns are not in, but our casualties are estimated at 1,500. I append a list of those ascertained so far. With one more division, the enemy would have been destroyed; but night put an end to the pursuit. The enemy's loss is believed to be more than double ours. Among them is General James Jackson, certain, and General Crittenden reported. Bullis is commanding the Federal army, and we have prisoners from five divisions. The Federal numbers at least 30,000, while we fought with only 12,000. Our army is in the highest spirits. At Frankfort the matter was soon ended. The enemy under McCook fled before Kirby Smith. Withers cut off his rear, took 700 prisoners and 18 wagons. Bragg's depot being menaced, he at once withdrew his army to protect them. Immediately a flag of truce from the enemy asked permission to bury their dead. At daylight next morning after the light had been a Yankee surgeon was left on the field. They wounded were all left; our wounded were removed. Gen. Polk had a narrow escape. Gen. Bragg says that he has the best troops in the world. Two thousand Kentuckians have taken arms, and more are organizing. Among our killed is Lt. Col. Patterson, of the 1st Tennessee; Lt. Col. Evans, of the Texas Rangers; Maj. W. Pryor, Commissary; Captain Cartwright, of Georgia; and Wm. S. May, of Gen. Claiborn's staff.

EVAUATION OF CORINTH

HOLLY SPRINGS, Oct. 17.—A gentleman arrived to-day from Corinth says that the enemy have evacuated Corinth, and that Bolivar, Tenn., is being evacuated.

BY TELEGRAPH

THE VERY LATEST FROM BRAGG'S ARMY

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 20, 1862. The last accounts from Bragg's army state that he was at London, Ky., falling back towards Cumberland Gap. Buell has a very large army and endeavored to flank Bragg while at Camp Dick Robinson, which was prevented by his retreat. Buell is yet endeavoring to flank him, and there may be a battle any day. The report of the taking a large number of prisoners by our army at Perryville proves untrue.

CAUSE OF THE INDIAN TROUBLES

The La Crosse (Wisconsin) Democrat gives the following explanation of the origin of the Indian troubles in the Northwest: The excitement in Northern Minnesota over the horrible Indian atrocities is becoming more intense each hour. At least one thousand whites have been slaughtered, and the number of those who were ravished and then murdered, children had their brains dashed out—houses, barns, outbuildings, what in stocks and yet uncut, have been burned. The Sioux Indians are noted for their blood-thirsty disposition, and have gathered on the Yellow Medicine to the number of five thousand warriors. The trouble is indeed most serious.

REPLY TO THE INDIAN TROUBLES

The blame of this pest on the Government or its agents, who, on a salary of $1,200 a year, in four years manage to save from fifty to one hundred thousand dollars! In some instances they pay an Indian five dollars—the ignorant red skin signs, by making his X mark, a receipt for fifty. Goods are sold to them at a thousand per cent. profit, and provisions at the shortest kind of weight. The last article of their trade was when gold was a premium, the attempt to pay them $71,000 annually money in paper. They would not receive it. Heretofore nothing but gold and silver had been paid them. To exchange this paper for gold took some time. Meanwhile, they were suffering for provisions. There is no excuse for their murdering in cold blood innocent captives. Had they cut their throats of the dishonest agents, and hung their bodies on the corner of some outhouse, the people would have said amen. The gold they were to receive did not reach them the day it was promised, and their work of vengeance began at once. Where the end will be, God only knows. The days of the Revolution never saw such butchery; even the worst Indian nations were more merciful when compared to the Minnesota massacre of 1862. Unless they are exterminated at once, there will not be a town or city left in all this section. This they swear. Here is a new and startling danger—it must be promptly met.

REPLY TO THE INDIAN TROUBLES

REPLY TO THE INDIAN TROUBLES.—The Knoxville Register says that Sam Mansfield, once a citizen of that place, afterwards a wealthy druggist in Memphis, was among the first who, under the excitement of the occasion, and perhaps under other external and internal influences, took the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government when Memphis was captured. Subsequently, Mr. Mansfield expressed his regret because of his apparent infidelity to the South, and he became a useful friend of imprisoned Confederate officers and soldiers, besides supplying our army with quinine and other drugs. He has been detected, imprisoned at Alton, Illinois, his drugs, valued at $100,000, have been confiscated, his real estate and negroes have been appropriated, and $75,000 in gold taken from his house. Of this loss the Federal officers make no report. Gold, we suppose, belongs to the captors.

DEATH OF EDWARD FISHER.—We are pained to announce the demise of this distinguished gentleman, in this city yesterday at one o'clock. He has been extensively known as a prominent man before the public for the last thirty years. That long ago he advocated the secession of the South from the Northern States upon philosophical principles—that, from the nature of the two races, they could not long live in peace. He was, in 1850-1, the editor of the Southern Press in Washington, which advocated with great ability the separation of the North and South. He was one of the best informed men and one of the most vigorous writers of the age. He was yesterday 54 years old—dying on his birth day. He has been married to Mrs. Mary Fisher, and has two children, a son and a daughter. He was a native of Hillsdale, N. Y. He died at 10 o'clock, Oct. 6, 1862.
