

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 25, 1862.

THE LATEST NEWS.

FIGHTING IN SOUTH CAROLINA—THE ENEMY DRIVEN BACK.

RICHMOND, Oct. 23.

The following official dispatch was received here to-day:
To General S. Cooper:
The Abolitionists attacked Pocotaligo and Coonawatchie yesterday. They were gallantly repulsed at Mackay's Point and Boe Creek Landing, by Colonel W. B. Walker, commanding the troops sent from here.

FROM CORINTH.

MONTHLY, October 24.

A special dispatch to the Advertiser and Register, dated Holly Springs, yesterday, says:
The enemy in front of Corinth yesterday made a reconnaissance to our lines under a flag of truce. The pretext was to see about the pretended treatment of the prisoners in our hands, and to negotiate relative to the reported cessation of hostilities at Corinth.

LATEST FROM NASHVILLE.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 22.

The Rebel has a dispatch from Murfreesboro dated the 21st, which says our pickets attacked the enemy from several points near Nashville on daylight this morning, driving in their pickets and capturing several and fifty prisoners on the Murfreesboro Pike.

NORTHERN NEWS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 22.

Northern papers of the 20th have been received. The troops under Gen. Hancock and Humphries, who recently crossed the Potomac, have returned to Maryland.
Several prominent politicians and business men have been drafted in Pennsylvania.
Gen. Morgan dashed into Lexington, Ky., on Saturday morning, the 18th, and "unpacked the Federal garrison to surrender."

THE RECOGNITION OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES BY EUROPE.

The latest advices from Europe bring encouraging news of our early recognition by England. The New York Tribune, of the 20th, in an editorial, says:
The last advices from Europe render it morally certain that France and Great Britain will recognize the Southern Confederacy on or about the 1st of January next, provided the situation shall remain unchanged till that time.

THE ELECTION IN THE NORTH.

The New York Tribune states that in Pennsylvania the Black Republicans have elected 15 Congressmen and the Democrats 9—a gain of two for the latter. The State officers are in doubt. The legislature 46 Republicans to 54 Democrats in the House, and 20 Republicans to 13 Democrats in the Senate.

FROM GEN. LEE'S ARMY.

We have from further particulars of the recent skirmishing along our lines. On Thursday, the 17th, the Stonewall brigade was sent out beyond our lines to destroy a certain bridge on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and to tear up the track. The enemy, who, at that time, crossed the river in force, perceiving this, attacked them with overwhelming numbers, but they were compelled to fall back with the loss of several men. Col. Rowland, of the 4th Virginia Regiment, who was at that time acting Brigadier General, is now in Winchester, severely wounded. On Friday morning the enemy, seeing the smoke of a barn which was accidentally fired near our lines, and supposing that we were burning our commissary stores for a precipitate retreat, made an advance on them, but finding that our forces were prepared to meet them, and that our army advanced at the same time to meet them, they declined an engagement, and the main body of their army again fell back beyond the Potomac.

THE SITUATION IN MISSISSIPPI.

The intelligence of what was at first supposed to be the almost irretrievable disaster of Corinth, becomes more favorable as the facts are developed, and as news reach us of the present condition and position of our army. The alarming reports which we first had from Mississippi, while the panic prevailed—among them, the foolish story that in retreating from Corinth our army was compelled to abandon its artillery—are not only disproved, but later and reliable reports received here represent, on the contrary, that our forces succeeded in bringing off their baggage train, and that our new concentrations of troops, and the good order in which the commands of Gen. Van Dorn, Lovell and Price here rendezvoused, led us to suspend any causes of alarm for the present.

THE LETTERS.

NEAR CHARLESTOWN, VA., Oct. 19, 1862.
Dear Uncle—I got here from the Ferry yesterday afternoon. I have not time to write you but a few lines now but will write more fully in a day or two.

I send you half a dozen copies of various of the Richmond papers, captured by some of our cavalry last night. By reading them you will see that the rebels are not yet fully convinced that they have not been routed in Kentucky. The Whig's editor no longer expects success there with the rebel army. It is now more important General And's presence is still in a state of partial anxiety about the battle of Perryville.

THE SUPPLY OF SALT.

REBEL VESSELS.
A private letter from Liverpool assures Horace Greeley of the great activity of the secessionists and their friends in England. Three or four vessels cleared at Liverpool about the middle of September, intended to run the blockade of the Southern coast; five steamers were in that port, one of them the Ernestine, having on board 800 tons iron plates, and three others were purchased within a day or two of the date of this correspondence.

THE YANKEE WAK DEBT.

The New York Christian Advocate comments on the enormous debt which this war is creating for the North as follows:
They tell us of an expense of nearly seven hundred millions of dollars in a year. Can you apprehend such a sum? How little do we know of the distance to the sun! Ninety-five millions of miles! Start a railroad train for such a journey. Let it stop at no planet for wood and water, or passengers—Place on it a little infant. The infant becomes a man, and reaches the allotted age of man; but the sun is not reached. Let another take his place, and live his three score years and ten; another and another—and still with no pause for repairs, or to cool its burning rays, and yet the journey's end is not attained. The fifth man's dying eyes are looking forward millions of miles for the journey's end. But we are here talking of even hundred millions—not of nine hundred millions.

THE SITUATION IN MISSISSIPPI.

The intelligence of what was at first supposed to be the almost irretrievable disaster of Corinth, becomes more favorable as the facts are developed, and as news reach us of the present condition and position of our army. The alarming reports which we first had from Mississippi, while the panic prevailed—among them, the foolish story that in retreating from Corinth our army was compelled to abandon its artillery—are not only disproved, but later and reliable reports received here represent, on the contrary, that our forces succeeded in bringing off their baggage train, and that our new concentrations of troops, and the good order in which the commands of Gen. Van Dorn, Lovell and Price here rendezvoused, led us to suspend any causes of alarm for the present.

THE LETTERS.

NEAR CHARLESTOWN, VA., Oct. 19, 1862.
Dear Uncle—I got here from the Ferry yesterday afternoon. I have not time to write you but a few lines now but will write more fully in a day or two.

I send you half a dozen copies of various of the Richmond papers, captured by some of our cavalry last night. By reading them you will see that the rebels are not yet fully convinced that they have not been routed in Kentucky. The Whig's editor no longer expects success there with the rebel army. It is now more important General And's presence is still in a state of partial anxiety about the battle of Perryville.

THE SUPPLY OF SALT.

REBEL VESSELS.
A private letter from Liverpool assures Horace Greeley of the great activity of the secessionists and their friends in England. Three or four vessels cleared at Liverpool about the middle of September, intended to run the blockade of the Southern coast; five steamers were in that port, one of them the Ernestine, having on board 800 tons iron plates, and three others were purchased within a day or two of the date of this correspondence.

THE YANKEE WAK DEBT.

The New York Christian Advocate comments on the enormous debt which this war is creating for the North as follows:
They tell us of an expense of nearly seven hundred millions of dollars in a year. Can you apprehend such a sum? How little do we know of the distance to the sun! Ninety-five millions of miles! Start a railroad train for such a journey. Let it stop at no planet for wood and water, or passengers—Place on it a little infant. The infant becomes a man, and reaches the allotted age of man; but the sun is not reached. Let another take his place, and live his three score years and ten; another and another—and still with no pause for repairs, or to cool its burning rays, and yet the journey's end is not attained. The fifth man's dying eyes are looking forward millions of miles for the journey's end. But we are here talking of even hundred millions—not of nine hundred millions.

THE SITUATION IN MISSISSIPPI.

The intelligence of what was at first supposed to be the almost irretrievable disaster of Corinth, becomes more favorable as the facts are developed, and as news reach us of the present condition and position of our army. The alarming reports which we first had from Mississippi, while the panic prevailed—among them, the foolish story that in retreating from Corinth our army was compelled to abandon its artillery—are not only disproved, but later and reliable reports received here represent, on the contrary, that our forces succeeded in bringing off their baggage train, and that our new concentrations of troops, and the good order in which the commands of Gen. Van Dorn, Lovell and Price here rendezvoused, led us to suspend any causes of alarm for the present.

THE LETTERS.

NEAR CHARLESTOWN, VA., Oct. 19, 1862.
Dear Uncle—I got here from the Ferry yesterday afternoon. I have not time to write you but a few lines now but will write more fully in a day or two.

STATE OF THE MINERS' AND PLANTERS' BANK OF N. C., SEPT. 30, 1862.
Table with financial data including Notes Discounted, Foreign Bills, Domestic Bills, etc.

THE SUPPLY OF SALT.

REBEL VESSELS.
A private letter from Liverpool assures Horace Greeley of the great activity of the secessionists and their friends in England. Three or four vessels cleared at Liverpool about the middle of September, intended to run the blockade of the Southern coast; five steamers were in that port, one of them the Ernestine, having on board 800 tons iron plates, and three others were purchased within a day or two of the date of this correspondence.

THE YANKEE WAK DEBT.

The New York Christian Advocate comments on the enormous debt which this war is creating for the North as follows:
They tell us of an expense of nearly seven hundred millions of dollars in a year. Can you apprehend such a sum? How little do we know of the distance to the sun! Ninety-five millions of miles! Start a railroad train for such a journey. Let it stop at no planet for wood and water, or passengers—Place on it a little infant. The infant becomes a man, and reaches the allotted age of man; but the sun is not reached. Let another take his place, and live his three score years and ten; another and another—and still with no pause for repairs, or to cool its burning rays, and yet the journey's end is not attained. The fifth man's dying eyes are looking forward millions of miles for the journey's end. But we are here talking of even hundred millions—not of nine hundred millions.

THE SITUATION IN MISSISSIPPI.

The intelligence of what was at first supposed to be the almost irretrievable disaster of Corinth, becomes more favorable as the facts are developed, and as news reach us of the present condition and position of our army. The alarming reports which we first had from Mississippi, while the panic prevailed—among them, the foolish story that in retreating from Corinth our army was compelled to abandon its artillery—are not only disproved, but later and reliable reports received here represent, on the contrary, that our forces succeeded in bringing off their baggage train, and that our new concentrations of troops, and the good order in which the commands of Gen. Van Dorn, Lovell and Price here rendezvoused, led us to suspend any causes of alarm for the present.

THE LETTERS.

NEAR CHARLESTOWN, VA., Oct. 19, 1862.
Dear Uncle—I got here from the Ferry yesterday afternoon. I have not time to write you but a few lines now but will write more fully in a day or two.

Table with financial data including Capital Stock paid in, Dividends, Depositors, Surplus Fund, etc.

ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS.

N. CAROLINA STATE CONVENTION, NOW READY!

Beautiful Farm for Sale.

THE UNDER-SIGNED WILL SELL TO THE highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House in the City of Raleigh, on TUESDAY, the 28th of October, 1862, the following property, viz:
The Dower interest of Mary S. Gales in lot No. 88 in the City of Raleigh, N. C.; and also two-thirds interest in remainder of said lot, as the late Mrs. Gales owned and also two-fifths interest in fee simple in lot No. 88 in said city.

Receiver's Sale.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO SHIPPERS AND OTHERS interested that the tariff of Freight rates on this Road will be raised twenty-five per cent, and the rates of Passengers to five cents per mile, on and after the first day of October.

To the Members of the Next House of Commons.

FOUND IN THE STREETS OF RALEIGH, a COUPON which has been detached from a North Carolina Receipt, which the owner has an application at the Public Treasurer's Office, by describing the No. and amount of said Coupon, and by paying for this advertisement.

Save Your Scraps.

SHAY, WILLIAMSON & CO., AT THE NORTH STATE IRON AND BRASS WORKS (formerly Burns' Foundry) will pay for scrap Cast Iron 3 cts. per lb. For wrought iron scraps, scrap Brass, scrap Zinc and scrap Copper the highest cash price will be paid.

STOCK OF THE RALEIGH AND GASCON RAILROAD—A few Shares.

BLANTON DUNCAN,

ANY EXTENT IN ENGRAVING AND PRINTING BANK NOTES, Bills of Exchange, &c. Engraving upon Steel or Stone. Large supplies of Bank Note and other paper will be kept.

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY—OFFICE RALEIGH, N. C.—THIS COMPANY takes risks upon all healthy lives between the ages of 14 and 60 years—for one year for one year, or longer.

CHARLES H. JOHNSON, Wm. H. Holden, J. W. Holden, P. F. Bessard, E. H. Battle, Wm. H. McKee, Charles B. Root, Everard Hall, Rich'd H. Battle.

THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL COMMENCE ON THE 1st OF OCT., 1862, and end on the ensuing 4th of July.

THE FIRST YEAR OF THE WAR.

250 PAIR CHILDREN AND MISSES SHOES.

36 OUNCES MORPHINE IN 1 DRACHM

ON AND AFTER THE FIRST DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, THE STATE JOURNAL will be published Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly.

The DAILY STATE JOURNAL will consist of the news received up to the latest hour before printing, and will contain TWO EDITIONS DAILY. THE MORNING EDITION will contain the news of the previous day, and all TELEGRAPHIC NEWS up to 10 o'clock the previous night, and will be supplied to city subscribers on Sat. 1/2 the morning mail, North and East of the EVENING EDITION will be printed at 3 o'clock p. m., and will contain the additional news by Telegraph up to 3 o'clock p. m., and will be sent to subscribers by the train westward by the Fayetteville mail. This subscribers, no matter in what direction they may live, will have the news up to the departure of the train.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Daily will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.

Advertisements for the Weekly will be inserted in the Tri-Weekly for one week, 12 cents; for two weeks, 25 cents; for one month, $1.00; for three months, $3.00; for six months, $5.00; for one year, $10.00.