CAPTURE OF A YANKER SHIP IN THE POTOMAC.

Among the prisouers brought to Richmond on Friday evening were the officers of a Yankee ship, taken under the following circumstances: Lieuts. Wood and W. Lee, of the navy, with iten volunteers from the "Patrick Honry," went off twelve miles in Chesapeake Bay, from the shore above York river, one night last week, boarded and captured the ship alluded to without difficulty. She proved to be the clipper "Alleghanian," of New York, 1200 tops register, with a crew of twenty-one men, bound from Baltimore to London with 1,420 tons of guano. After removing the prisoners and instruments, her captors set fire to and burnt her. The adventurers passed two or three steamers on the way out and back.

THE RECOGNITION QUESTION. - That bit of the foreign news by the Australasian bearing more directly perhaps on the question of recognition than any other, is the following paragraph from the London Army and Navy Gazette, of the 11th to return to Washington in the course of this month, will be placed in a position to define the course and views of her Majesty's Government, without any uncertainties or doubts in view of the various phases which the contest in North America may assume, and that Ministers have arrived at positive conclusions, and have determined their policy in reference to the affairs of the United States before his Lordship's return to his post. The views of Russia are, it is believed, assimilated to those which the march of events and inexorable logic of facts place broadly and clearly before the Government of the Queen and that of his Imperial Majesty.

MR. STEPHENS'S SPARTA SPEECH .- His advice to the Planters Misrepresented .- The Augusta Constitutionalist is authorized to say that Vice President Stephens, in his recent speech at Sparta. On the contrary, he urged the importance of raising large crops of grain, while the war lasted-not only for home consumption, but, also, to feed the army.

SECOND N. C. CAVALRY-ANOTHER HAUL OF LIVE YANKEES AND

Major Clinton M. Andrews, 2nd N. C. Cavalry, makes the following report to his Excellency

HEADQ'RS 19TH REGIMENT, N. C. T., Warrenton, Va., October 20th, 1862.

To his Excellency Gov. Vance: SIR: I have the honor to report to you the success of the 2d N. C. Cavairy in a recent scout through the enemy's lines about Centreville, Va. With six companies of the regiment, I was ordered to make the scout. Soon after sun up on Saturday morning, (having ridden for 18 hours without rest.) I advanced to the Centreville pike, and there saw evident signs of a force having passed. I learned from citizens that a force of cavalry and artillery had passed early in the night, and that it was followed by a guarded train of Yankee wagons. I got the forces all right and commenced the chase. After going about one mile we ran up with their videttes. They (as we afterwards learned) supposed us to be their rear force, and halted my advanced guard. I withheld the charge by the guard, and ordered forward the first squadron, commanded by Captain Randolph. At the com-mand, off we dashed, and after a chase of about two miles, we got every man (but one) and all the teams and wagons. Result-1 Lieutenant, 27 men, 24 mules, 32 horses, 7 wagons, loaded with sugar, coffee, pork, crackers and oats. All saved, and not a man hurt

The prize, worth over $20,000, was pushed in advance of my force (driven by miserable Yankees) before either their advanced force or their force in the rear, consisting of 1,500 troopers and four pieces of artillery, could catch us. We had not been in Warrenton more than thirty minutes, till a courier came dashing in, with news that "the enemy" in strong force was coming to Warrenton. I had two pieces of artillery at achied to our regiment, and with it and the regiment we made a stand. The enemy did not come, and we put after them, as they were in the road three miles off, but they skedaddled double quick. We have coffee, and sweetening too every day now.

FOR THE REGISTER.

CHANGE OUR MILITIA LAW. Shall we surrender all our able bodied men to the General Government and then defend ourselves? This is certainly implied in the sargender, for we in effect say to the President, we have militia enough left, as our roll extends to 50 years, while that of other States extend only to Hence, when invasion comes, we cannot complain should the Government judge proper to withhold from us our own troops. We freely surrender them, and fall back upon our militia.
