DEFEAT OF THE ENEMY NEAR SUFFICIEL

A REPULSE ON THE BLACKWATER.

About one o'clock on Thur day morning last, a detachment of Confederate troops made a successful atlack upon a Yankee encampment about two miles from Suffolk, consisting of a vastly superior force, and completely putting them to flight. Such was the impetuosity and vigor of the attack by the small body of our troops, that the enemy, no doubt fearing the Suffelk. In this attack we killed eleven of the enem and wounded many more. Our forces then fell back, having accomplished their mission.

On Thursday the Yankees made their appearance at Blackwater Bridge, between Franklin and Ivor, and attacked our pickets. Immediately on being advised of this fact, Col. Claiberne and Lieut Col. Toliaferro, commanding a mounted Regiment, proceeded thither to engage them; but as soon as the enemy saw them, they beat a hasty retreat in the direction of Zunil Here our pickets held them at bay until a portion of our forces crme up, when a short fight ensued. The Yankoes were routed with a loss of several killed and wounded. We have heard of no casualties on our side. - Petersburg Express.

To the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the loyal, patriotic, and humane rectutions of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, concerning the recent destruction of American vessels near the Azores by pirates who went out from the shores of a friendly nation in violation of the restrictions prescribed by municipal as well as international laws.

By authority of the President, the subject has been already commended to the attention of the representative of the United States at London .-The views of the Chamber of Commerce concerning the same will, with pleasure, be promptly made known to him, and to the other diplomatic as well as the consular agents of the United States residing in maritime countries.

I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant. WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

The New York Commercial says: The Ino, a sailing war vessel, left this pert yesterday; the sailing frigate Sabine has left New London, and the Vanderbilt and Dacotah are under sailing orders. The merchants of this city, meanwhile, are disscussing the propriety of sending some fast vessel, the Dreadnought, for instance, to aid in intercepting the pirate Sammes. REPORTED ADVANCE OF THE ENEMY

ON THE BLACK WATER. Reports (says the Petersburg Express of the 15th inst.,) were brought to the city lest evening, of an advance of the enemy in force from Blackwater Ford, yesterday morning, and of the subsequent attack on our troops below Ivor. It is stated that the Yankees, several thousand strong, advanced to Blackwater Ford on Thursday evening, driving back our pickets, and holding possession of the Ford until early yesterday morning, when their force was divided-a portion going in the direction of Franklin, and the balance moving towards Ivor station. Of the further move-ments of the first portion we are not advised, but of the latter, it is known that a fight occurred at or near Mrs. Boykin's place, about four miles beour informant left Ivor while the engagement was progressing within hearing, and almost within sight. The enemy attacked us with cavalry and artillery, and it is supposed their object was to cross the river, which was vigorously contested by our troops. We shall probably hear further particulars to day. Blackwater ford is about fourteen miles from Franklin, and eight from Ivor. As reinforcements were rapidly sent forward, it is reasonable Washington to urge the adequate and immediate to suppose that the Yankee made no headway.

The military force in Canada is about to be increased by some batteries of artillery and a brigade of infantry. Large additions have been recently made to the stores of arms, ammunition, and material in military depots, which are now equal to equipage and maintaining in the field a force of 250,000 men, should the necessity arise for it during the season when navigation is closed. At a public meeting, held at Oldham, resolutions were offered calling on the Government to recognize, the Confederate States. An amendment was offered, declaring such recognition im-politic, and likely to lead to war with the North. After some uproarious proceedings, the original motion was declared carried, although the meeting wasabout equally divided. FROM CANADA -- We yesterday had an interview with a gentleman just from Canada, who informed us that when Brute Butler's "woman's" order was first received in Canada, that a Mr. Bennet, a Yankee, who kept a noted first class hotel at London, in Canada, publicly endorsed the infamous order at the breakfast table, and that before night forty one British officers-who always lodged at this, the best house, ordered their baggage and indignantly left the hotel. He states further that Canada is swarming with organ-grinders, and that they universally commence and quit with "Dixie." He thinks the British subjects in Canada strongly sympathize with the South. FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

There was an alarm at Winehester on Sunday last, caused by the report that a body of Federal cavalry, numbering some three thousand, supported by infantry, were at Bunker Hill, and moving on that town. The citizens, as is usual on such occasions, commenced preparations to leave, and many of them did evacuate the place; but on Monday morning the report was ascertained to be without foundation, and everything quieted

The enemy made a dash into Martinsburg on Saturday evening last, and captured one wounded Confederate soldier. On Sunday they made an advance in considerable force on Gen. A. P. Hill's division from the direction of Charlestown, shelfing the woods on each side as they advanced; but their fire was not responded to by our troops. They did not approach nearer than five miles of our forces.

On Saturday last eleven members of White's cavalry, of Loudon county, captured one hundred and thirty stragglers of the enemy's forces at Snicker's Gap. They belonged to various regiments, and at the time of their capture were unarmed. In addition, two sutlers' wagons were captured, containing a valuable lot of shoes and clothing. Che hundred and twenty six of these prisoners were brought down by the Central train last evening, three took the oath of allegiance to the Confederacy, and one was left in Winchester, too sick to travel. The three who took the oath are shoemakers, and volunteered their services in that capacity. Passengers by the train state that a report reached Staunton from Winchester yesterday morning to the effect that Gen. A. P. Hill had had an engagement with the enemy on Wednes day, in which he captured a large number of prisoners and a wagon train of great value, estimated at not less than $500,000.

Along the lines of the Rappahannock everything is quiet, and no indications of an advance of the Yankees .-- Rivhmond Dispatch.

Gav. Morehead has donated five hundred dollars to the Ladies' Soldiers Aid Society, of Greensborough .- Charlotte Democrat.

We would pull off our cap and hurrah for Gov. Morehead, if we had no evidence that he makes these who buy his cotton yarns, his flour, meal and bacon, and the poor operatives in his Factory (who are required to work from daybrake until 9 p. m., at the same wages given ten years ago,) foot the bill. Gov. Morehead could well afford to give five thousand dollars, considering his enormous prices on cotto 1 yarns, osnaburgs, meal, flour and bacon, that the poor have to buy of him. So, after all, it is the poor that gave the five-hundred dollars; and not Governor Morehead. If Gov. Morehead wishes to be a public benefactor-if he desires the South to triumph over the North-if he would keep the Yamkee army at a respectable distance from his mills in Rockingham and his domicile in Greensborough, let him materially reduce the price of his meal, flour, bacon, corton yarns and oznaburgs. But he is not the first man we have heard of making a "liberal" donation to the Soldiers, by wringing it from the bard hands of their famiyond Ivor. We have not learned the results, as lies. We have a man in our eye who contributed three-hundred dollars, but he advanced two dollars on the barrel of corn and 15 cents on the mouthful of meat, to get his money back, and he got it, and a big pile besides, mostly from the poor soldiers families. And yet he, no doubt, claimed great credit for "a liberal contribution." We use spectacles, occasionally, but have not gone blind as a bat yet .- Milton Chronicle.

A CRY FOR PEACE.

The Boston Pilot, of the 25th ult., contains an editorial strongly urging Lincoln to offer terms of peace to the South. It says:

The president has issued many proclamations which he patriotically believed would be followed by an increase of Unionism in the South. But his manifestoes are spit at and himself derided. His documents are of no avail but one-that of enlarging the spirit of rebellion. Can he mention a single proclamation of his that have realized his hopes? We should be sorry to impede him in saving the Union. But his past experience should tell him now that an armistice would do good. What does the South want? Can he not put a question in this nature? Can be not try the value of a suggestion for peace? This may not be the highest spirit-it may not be according to the way in which guilty rebels should be treated. But it is prudence. We cannot break the spirit of the South by arms, and without their spirit in its freedom, their overthrow would lead to nothing.
