THE RALBIGH KROSTER.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 26, 1862

THE LATEST NEWS.

We learn that a dispatch was received in Raleigh to-day (Tuesday), which states that there had been a fight at Fredericksburg, and that Lee had repulsed the Yankees.

THE NEWS.

A despatch from Port Hudson states that a fleet of 30 Yankee vessels has just arrived at that city. Its destination is not known.

The stores destroyed at Manassas last week were burnt by nine Confederate scouts, whose approach being discovered by the Yankee pickets, caused the speedy retreat of Seigle's whole command towards Washington. The scouts were supposed to be the advance of Jackson's cores.

A despatch from Wilmington, dated Monday the 24th, says that the schooper Harkaway, Capt. Capinau, eleven days from Nassau, with five hundred and fifty sacks of salt, has arrived ther

The Exchange Hotel in Richmond was sold on Monday to Robert A. Lancaster and others for $101,000.

FROM FREDERICKSBURG-THE SUB RENDER OF THE TOWN DEMANDED.

We present this morning such particulars as have reached us of the condition of affairs around Fredericksburg, which, within the past week, has been made the chief theatre of army operations. Early last week it became apparent that the main body of the enemy's forces were in the vincinity. of that town, and the fact was developed that Buraside intended a movement from that quarter upon Richmond. It is needless to allude to the movements of our own army consequent upon these developments, and imprudent to speak of the preparations made to arrest the threatened advance of the enemy. On Friday a demand was made upon the Mayor for a surrender of the place, and allowing sixteen hours for the removal of the women and children.

The Mayor and Council replied requesting longer time for the removal of the women and chi dren. A conference was then held with the Yankee officers which resulted in an extension fof the time for the removal of the women and children, and others-not connected with the defence of the place, until 12 o'clock Sunday. The work of re-moval was at once commenced and rapidly prosecuted, the trains arriving at Richmond on Saturday afternoon, being filled with those thus suddenly deprived of their homes. Whilst the train which left Fredericksburg about noon on Saturday was leaving the depot, the agreement entered into was broken by the faithless enemy by firing several shells at it, one of which exploded in close proximity to it.

Our latest advices from the town state that up to I o'clock Sunday the shelling had not commenced.

GENERAL JOHNSTON'S COMMAND-THE ARMY IN THE WEST CONSOLIDATED.—It is stated that General Joseph E. Johnston has been appointed to take command in the West. The armies in the West, including those in East and Middle Tennessee and the army of the Mississippi, will be consolidated under his command; and his Department will be known generally as the West-

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

Mobile, Nov. 20th .- A letter in the "Adver tiser and Register," dated Abbeville, 15th.

The army has been on the qui vive for a week past, anticipating an attack from the enemy. To day information was received that the abolitionists have retired some distance. From their movements, it is difficult to conjecture whether they meditate an attack upon Pemberton's army or not. It is certain they have advanced their forces from Jackson, Bolivar, and a portion from Corinth, to Lagrange and Grand Junction. At the latter place Gen. Grant has established his headquarters.

Our army occupy a position of great natural strength, are well fortified, and have been manifesting great impatience to advance upon the invading force. It is not thought probable that the enemy will hazard an engagement.

LATER FROM NASSAU-LOSS OF A STEAMER.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 19 .- Nassau dates to the 12th inst., have been received. They bring accounts of the loss of the steamer Kelsie, fifty miles soon after sunk. She was one of three light draft steamers built expressly on the Clyde to run the blockade. One, the Jiona, was sunk in the Clyde. The other having not been heard from is also sup posed to be lost.

Admiral Milne's command of the North American and West India station has been extended one year longer.

ATTACK UPON FORT MCALLISTER. Augusta, Nov. 20 .- The Savannah papers o

this morning say two Abolition gunboats and one mortar boat attacked Bort Me Allister, Genesis Point, on the Ozeechee River, yesterday morning. After a fierce engagement the boats retired. Our loss is three men slightly wounded. The works are still in perfect order.

FROM FREDERICKSBURG.

The only news of importance from Frederickscommunication for the authorities, but as the train left for Richmond shortly afterwards, its purport has not transpired. The Federal officer was referred to General Lee. In the situation of affairs at Fredericksburg there has been no change since our previous report. We are informed that our pickets have occasionally indulged in conversation | federate Government. with those of the enemy across the river, but a stop has been put to this practice.

and gone to Port Royal, Caroline county, for the | ral sections of the act.) purpose of taking their gunboats to some other point. There is nothing in our advices to confirm this statement, although it was the opinion of some persons at Fredericksburg on Thursday, gaming generally.)

that there was a movement in the direction of Mr. Ramsey, from the Aquia Creek.

THE LATEST.

At a late hour last night, we received informa-tion that the communication from Burnside to General Lee was a demand for the surrender of the town by 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and that it would be shelled in the event of a refusal. We have not learned the purport of the reply.

The Fredericksburg Herald of vesterday says that on Tuesday and Wednesday the Potomac river was covered with vessels of all sizes and kinds, mainly of the transport order. That these vessels were intended to carry off the army is an opinion entertained by many. Enough of the army will be left over the river though to "keep up appearances." The writer adds—"We shall not be surprised if, by Saturday night, the main bulk of Burnside's force is well on its way to their new destination, though, of course, this is conjecture to a great extent." The Herald says, however, that others entertain a different opinion in regard to General Burnside's movements, and insist that Fredericksburg will be the base of his operations,—Richmond Whig.

THE STAY LAW.

It will be seen by the Senate report of the proceedings of the Legislature that a bill has been introduced to repeal the main provisions of what is known as the "Stay Law." We think it is aninjudicious move at this critical period to unsettle the people's minds relative to pecuniary matters. The Convention, composed of the ablest men in the State, refused to make any material alteration in the law, and it was well qualified to judge of its merits. The people have asked for no change, they are content with the present law, and have made their business arrangements under the idea that the law was a permanent one until the close of the war. If there is any class in favor of repeal, it is those professional gentlemen. who live by County and Superior Court litigation, and that greedy class of speculators who are anxiously on the look out for sheriff's sales. A repeal of the "Stay Law". is eagerly looked for by those men who have no faith in the final success of the South, and object upon the most trival pretence to receive Confederate money, in payment from their debtors. Every man in the community is aware, how eagerly property of every kind brings enormous prices, from a certain class of dealers, who, after speculating upon the necessities of the poor, are eager to invest their unholy gains in real estate, as they have no confidence in Confederate money. It is for the benefit of such men as the foregoing, to have the law repealed, that they may grasp the property of their more.
