THE RALEIGH REGISTER. SATURDAY MORNING, JAN'Y. 17, 1863. THE LATEST NEWS.

THE NEWS.

The latest dates from the North are to the 13th inst. The Yankees say they did not renew the attack on Vicksburg because they found the place impregnable, and heavily reinforced. They say they will operate from some other point. They claim to have repulsed the Confederates at Springfield, Mo., and still hold the town. Bichardson has been elected to the Senate from Illinois. - The Yankee Senate has passed a bill authorizing the enlistment of 20,000 volunteess for the defence of Kentucky, Gold in New York on Monday 142. closing at 1415.

In the Virginia House of Delegates on Thursday one ballot was taken for O. S. Sepator, with the following result : Wm. C. Bives, 30 ; Judge Allan, 28; Floyd and Russell each 22 votes. The election was then postponed to Friday.

A despatch from Charleston states that another steamer has arrived at a Confederate port, bringing a most valuable seconted cargo and several passengers. She left Nassau on Sunday last.-When she left, there were six very swift English steamers there, freighted with goods for the South, and about to sail for a Confederate port.

A special despatch to the Savannah Republ dated Tullahoma, Jan. 14th, says : "A member of Rosencranz's "staff, in a telegram to the Louis ville Journal, describes the Murfreeshore, as the greatest battle of modern times. He states their batteries were massed into a park of one hundred cannon. Such carnage is unknown in history .-He estimates their force at 70,000, ours at 80,000. Over forty Lincolnite Generals and Colonels were killed, and as many wounded.

A dispatch from Wilmington deted Jan. says : "A Federal solicomer, supposed to be transport, went ashore off Wrightsville Sound, 9 miles hence, at 6 o'clock, yesterday eveningtotal loss. Men reported on the beach this morr. ing. Heavy weather at sea, wind Southeast."

Another despatch from Wilmington,same date says : "The Cornubia went safely to sea last night from a Confederate port. The Steamer that went ashore, was a blockader. This morning the blockader nearest in, stands a chance of proving a total wreck."

ly stated that the advance in heavy force within the enemy's lines. Mr. Foote offered resolutions that the South consent to no plan for the reconstruction of the ormer Union, nor to any armistice, so long as Lincoln's Proclamation is unrevoked nor ever negotiate except upon the basis of ancour ecognition-and that she never shall consent to any alliance, commercial or otherwise, with the New England States. That she would be willing to negotiate with such of the States bordering on the Mississippi as may be willing to stipulate and enter into a league, offensive and defensive, when any part of the North shall overthrow Lincoln's power-and to offer a guaranty to the Northwestern States of the free navigation of the Mississippi whenever they shall declare an inclination to withdraw from the war. The resolutions present inducements to the States, West of the Rocky Mountains to withdraw from the Federal Union, &c. They were all referred. Resolutions were also presented demanding an investigation of the frauda in flour contracts, dro., pending the consideration of which the House adjourned.

From the Richmond Enquirer. THE EAST TENNESSEE RAID.

The Knozville Register, of January 3d, says a courier started from Pattonsville on Monday last, at one o'clock, P. M., and reached Morristown Monday night at eight o'clock. He broke down six horses to reach Morristown. Thence he telesix horses to reach Morristown. Thence he tele-graphed the military authorities at Knoxville and at Abingdon, Vs., that the Federals were ap-proaching the railway at the Wataugs and Hols-ton bridges. Thirteen hours intervened between the time this despatch was sent from Morristown and the burning of the railroad bridges. Why was not Colonel Love advised of the facts? Why were his guards at the bridges unadvised of the approach of the Federals? Why were the bridges destroyed? Can't a train of cars move a bridges destroyed? Can't a train of cars move a brigade from Enoxyille to the Watauga and Holston in thirteen hours? Who has been asleep? These Yankees passed Kingsport at noon on Monday. The courier who left Pattonsville at one o'clock reached Rogerstown at four o'clock, making thirty-two miles in three hours. The Register says it has these facts from unquestion-able authority, and knows that the depatches were sent by telegraph and were received at Knorville. The Lynchburg Virginian gives some additional particulars in regard to this Yankee raid. It says

There are strong indications of an advance of the enemy from Newbern. Indeed, it is positive-the enemy from Newbern. Indeed, it is positive-been paroled and has returned home. He was Col. R. G. A. Love, who was captured during tured at Zollicoffer where he was recompoiter ready commenced. Brig. Gen. Whiting, appro-ing on a locometive. He gives through the Greenville Banner, a full account of the whole affair. After burning the bridge at Zollicoffer, being determined to hold it at all hazards, has about half of the Yankee force (2000) was deordered the removal of all non-combatants from spatched to burn the Watauga bridge. Upon their arrival at Carter's depot, they precipitated their whole force at once upon the little band there stationed, which was under the command of Lieut. J. Ramsey Dills. This small force of 120 men withstood the onset bravely and con-tested every inch of ground, when at last they were overwhelmed and compelled to surrender.

CHRISTMAS. BY HENRY TIMBOD.

How grace this hallowed day?

Shall happy bells, from yonder ancient spire, Send their glad greetings to each Christmus fire Hound which the children play?

Alas I for many a moon, That tongueless tower hath cleaved the Sabbati

Mute as an obelisk of ice aglare. Benesth an Arctic noon

Shame to the foes that drown pealms of worship with their impious drum, The sweetest chimes in all the land lie dump. In some far rustic town.

There, let us think, they keep, Of the dead Yules which here besides the sea They've ushered in with old-world, English glee, Some echoes in their sleep.

How shall we grace the day? With feast, and song, and dance, and antique sports,

And shout of happy children in the courts, And tales of ghost and fay?

Is there indeed a door. Where the old pastimes, with their lawful noise, And all the merry round of Christmas joys, Could enter as of yore?

Would not some pallid face Look in upon the banquet, calling up Dread shapes of battle in the wassall cup, And trouble all the place?

How could we bear the mirth. While some loved reveller of a year ago Keeps his mute Christmas new beneath the snow, In cold Virginian earth?

How shall we grace the day ?. Ah! let the thought that on this holy morn The Prince of Peace-the Prince of Peace born.

YANKEES LEAVING MIDDLE TENNES. SEE-DISTRUCTION OF LAVERGNE. CHATTANGORA, Jan. 13 .- The village of Lavergne near Murfreesboro', has been burnt to ashes by the Yankses.

The Rebel publishes a report of the withdrawal of a division of Rosencranz's army from Middle Tennessee. Approved by JNO: K. JACKSON, Brig. Gen., Commanding.

LATER FROM THE NORTH.

FREDERICESBURG. Jan. 14 .- Northern dates of the 12th instant have been received. The news is unimportant. An arrival from New Orleans brings the Yankee version of the capture of the Harriet Lane and blowing up the flag ship Westfield, with Commander Renshaw and most of the crew. The Harriet Lane was captured after all the officers including Captain Warnwright and Lieutenant Lee and all the crew-one hundred and thirty all told-had been killed by musketry from the rebel steamers. Only one or two officers and twelve or fifteen of the crew escaped death. All the Yankee fleet was on its way to New Orleans.

The National Advocate, at New Orleans, has been suppressed for publishing rebel reports of victories at Murfreesboro' and Vicksburg and Jeff. Davis' speech at Jackson.

Three negro regiments are doing garrison duty in forts Jackson, St. Phillip and Pike. Rear Admiral Farragut was about to attack

Port Hudson. A dispatch from Cairo, dated 11th, says General Sherman's repulse at Vicksburg was complete. The entire force, under the direction of General kee loss is reported at six hundred killed, fifteen hundred wounded, and one thousand missing. The steamer Mussleman was burned by guerrillas at Bradley's Landing, ten miles above Memphis, on the 8th instant.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY'S REPORT.

RICHMOND, Jan. 15 .- The Report of the Secretary of the Treasury shows, that from the commencement of the permanent Government to the 31st December, the receipts were four hundred and fifty seven millions eight hundred and fifty-five thousand dollars. The expenditures were four hundred and forty three millions four hundred and eleven thousand dollars.

The estimated amount to be raised by Congress to the first of July, four hundred millions. The debt of the Government on the first inst., was five hundred and fifty-six millions, including eighty-eight millions of Bonds, fifty-six millions two millions of general currency, and one, hundred and twenty millions of seven-thirty notes.

IMPORTANT FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 14 .--- Official information

The casualties on the side of the enemy were much greater in proportion to numbers than ours. The Yankees lost four killed and several wounded, one man lost a leg. Our loss seven wounded, one mortally, since dead.

After the fight the bridge was set on fire and the engine, bearing Colonel Love, was run back to Carter's Depot, the prisoners taken off and paroled. The steam was then increased, the muskets and swords belonging to our men were broken and placed on the engine. The engine was then put in motion by a Yankee by the name of McNish, who used to run as engineer on the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad ; which ran on the burning bridge, and all went under. The Yankees acted towards our little band of soldiers more like heathens than civilized warriors of the 19th century. Not being content with burning their tents, they robbed them of every blanket and every stitch of clothing except what they had on, and burned them, broke open trunks, took money and every little thing they could lay their hands on. There were five regiments of these thieving Abolitionists. One was an East Tennessee renegade tory regiment, under the command of Ponnsylvania, one 2d Michigan, and the other either from lows or Michigan. All under the command of Brig. Gen. Sam Carter, the infamous tory and renegade from East Tennessee. who, like many others, is lending all his energies, McClernand, re-embarked Saturday on transports both of body and mind to aid Linceln in subju-closely pressed by the rebel advance. The Yan- gating the land of his nativity, the home of his family relations.

Col. Love says it was plain to be discovered in met with the reception from the Unionites that they expected.

After a short hour's rest, and from mortification co-operate with them in the bridge burning, they section, and that he saw about thirty with guns. stole all the horses they could, both from Uuion and Southern men, and left in disgust, the worst scared men that ever made a track from Tenn essae.

Peace in the quiet dales, Made rankly fertile by the blood of men ; Peace in the woodland, and the lenely glen, Peace in the peopled vales!

Peace in the crowded town. Peace in a thousand fields of waving grain. Peace in the highway and the flowery lane, Peace on the wind-swept down!

Peace on the farthest seas. Peace in our sheltered bays and ample streams, Peace wheresoe'er our starry garland gleams, And peace in every breeze !

Peace on the whirring marts, Peace where the scholar thinks, the hunter roams, Peace, God of Peace! peace, peace in all our homes.

And peace in all our hearts !

THE YANKEES IN ELIZABETH CITY.

The State Journal learns from a gentleman direct from Elizabeth city, that on Friday last, notice was given to the citizens, that they must either take the oath of allegiance to the United States Government, or withdraw beyond the lines Col. Jim Carter ; one was the 7th Ohio, one 9th of the enemy. Tuesday last, the 13th, was the last day allowed the people to determine what course they would adopt. Some of the citizens remonstrated with the commander of the enemy, for singling out their town for such a harsh order. He replied that there must be a starting point, and that in less than ten days the same order would be extended from Currituck to the Chowthe countenance of the Carters, that they had not an river. We understand that some seven or eight buffaloes have been killed recently around Elizabeth City. RICHMOND, Jan. 13.—Governor Robinson's Message recommends to Kentucky to reject and protest against Lincoln's Proclamation. It inflicts, says he, upon Kentucky, a fatal though indirect blow. ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS. LYNCHBURG, Jan. 13.—168 federal prisoners arrived here this evening, contured at Musfrage.	threats to words of compromise. [Applause.]— We are looking forward now to a peaceful settle- ment of our difficulties; but it can only be obtained by a strict adherence to the Constitution as it was made by our fathers. By this spirit the greatest structure of modern times, this mighty temple of liberty, can be restored and maintained as it ought to be. There are those who distinguish between the Union and the Constitution. I recognize no such distinction. [Cheers.] If the Constitution be destroyed, the Union perishes with it. fories	DIED.—At the residence of his son, on New- found, Buncombe county, on the 1st inst., George Roberts, aged one hundred and nine years.
