Mr. Henry, of Henderson, presented a memorial from citizens of Henderson county, relative to the mode of assessing the value of slave property as proposed by the Revenue bill. Mr. Amiss, from the committee appointed to make arrangements for the reception of the Senate for the joint session, &c., reported a plan which was concurred in, and the Senate was notified by message, of the arrangement.

On motion of Mr. Shepherd, the House took up a resolution relative to the bounty of soldiers. Mr. Shepherd stated the reasons why the passage of the resolution was necessary. The resolution was then passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

The Revenue Bill being the special order was taken up.

Mr. Amis said that he had been satisfied from an interchange of views with a number of parties that the mode of fixing the value of slave property proposed in the Revenue bill, was not in accordance with the wishes of a majority of-our people, and he did not think that the plan ought to be favored by them. He had in course of preparation an amendment, the features of which, he "HE's TAKEN TO DRINK."-How knell like indicated. He thought the bill should be amend.

Mr. Walser, a bill to authorize the investment of trust funds, &c., in Confederate Bonds. Referred.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Kerner. The Chatham Railroad bill was taken up, and on motion the House adjourned until 7 o'clock this evening.

EVENING SESSION.

TUESDAY, Jan. 27.

The bill to amend the Charter of the Chatham and Coal Fields Railroad, being the unfinished business of the morning. The question being upon certain amendments recommended by the Internal Improvement Committee.

Mr. Waddell spoke in favor of the bill, and went into the history of the Coal and Iron interest of the Deep River country, and argued to show that no better investment could be made by the State, so far as dividends are concerned, but that it would materially contribute to the development of the great mineral wealth of the Deep River Valley.

The committee's amendments were concurred

An amendment proposed by Mr. McKay was accepted by the author of the bill, and the vote was taken and the bill passed its second reading. On Mr. Fowle's motion, the rules were suspended, and the bill put upon its third reading. Messra. Cobb and Rives opposed the bill, and Messrs. McKay, Fowle and Mann, of Pasquotank, spoke in its favor.

The vote was then taken, and the bill passed its third reading.

On motion the House adjourned until 10 o'clock Wednesday mcrning.

WAS COMMITTED TO THE JAIL OF Warren County, on the 31st day of December last as a runaway, a Negro man who says his name is Washington Newell; that he belongs to Capt. Wm. Smith of the 6th Regiment N. C. Troops, and that his master lives in Eaquier County, Va., when at home. He also says he escaped from the Jail of Wake Coun ty some six or eight weeks since, and subsequently from Nash County Jail.

Said Negro is a dark ginger cake or bacon color about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, has bad teeth in front and appears to be about 40 or 45 years of age. The owner must prove property, pay charges and take him away or he will be dealt with as the law di-WM. L. HARKISS, rects. Jan. 10-tf Jailor.
