A PROCLAMATION,

SAM. W. MELTON.

Major and A. A. Gen.

ZEBULON B. VANCE. GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. Whereas; it has been made known to me that a arge number of soldiers from our armies are absent from their celors without proper leave, in this the hour of our greatest need, and it being confidently believed that a large majority of such were impelled to this course by a natural and almost irresistible esire to see their homes and families once more after so long an absence, and not because of a coward. ly dete mination to leave their brave comrades to share all the dangers and hardships of the field alone; and whereas, Mail Gen. G. W. Smith, in command the Department of North Carolina, by consent of the Secretary of War, has published an order declaring that all who may voluntarily return to duty by the 10th day of February next, shall be received into their several commands . with no other punishment than a forfeiture of their pay for the time they have been so absent without leave; and declaring further that all who do not so return by the said 10th day of February, shall, when apprehended, be tried for desertion, and upon conviction, be made to suffer death: Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation to all soldiers from this State, serving in the armies of the Confederacy, who are now illegally absent from their colors, commanding them to return to duty with their comrades, and exhorting them to avail themselves of this opportunity of sav. ing their friends from the disgrace and infamy which will cling forever to the name of a deserter from his country's cause, and themselves from a felon's death. Many, after carrying their country's flag in triumph through various bloody conflicts, and making themselves a name of which their children's children might have been justly proud, have forfeited it all by absenting themselves at a moment when their own State savage foe. Now is the time to re-instate themselves, by a prompt return to duty. I appeal to them to stand by their country yet a little longer, and not to sully by desertion the bright and glorious reputation of the State, which they have helped to win or a hundred hard fought fields; and I appeal to all got d and loyal citizens throughout the State to give their influence to induce these men to return. Let no one, unmoved by this appeal to patriotism and honor, sup-pose that he can remain at home with impunity; the tall power of the State authorities, aided if need be by the Confederacy, shall be put in force to arrest him and bring him to punishment after the 10th day of February next, and there shall be no rest for the deserter in the borders of Nerth Carolina. And let none excuse their desertion by declaring that they go home to take care of their families; they will add nothing to the comforts of their families by hiding like guilty men in the woods by day, and by plundering their neighbors by night; they only bing shame and suffering upon the heads of the innocent, and their little children, when gray headed old men, will ty some six or eight weeks since, and subsequently have the finger of scorn pointed at them and the bitter taunt will ring in their ears, "Your father skulked in the woods to keep from fighting for his country." The State is now trying to provide food for your families, and each county is making a similar provision; and as your Chief Magistrate I promise you that the wife and child of the soldier who is in the army doing his duty shall share the last bushel of meal and the last pound of meat in the State. Let every patriot in the land assist with all his influence in the execution of this proclamation, and our victorious ranks will again be filled, and our country soon be rid of the enemy.

In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, our Governor, Captain-General and Com-[L. S.] mander in Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 25th day of
