

ERN ARMY, VICKSBURG, &c.

Highly important telegraphic news was received in this city yesterday, the substance of which we append :

From our Northern Army we learn that Imboden's eavalry had destroyed all the workshops, machinery, cars, &c., at Cumberland, Md., and had destroyed every bridge on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad some distance west of Camberland, including the great iron bridge and the great tunnel.

Northern news to the 22nd has been received language as you quote from his raper reflects the in Richmond. It is stated from this source that the Confederates to the number of 40,000 are at Hagerstown, and are forthying at that place. Gov. Curtain, of Penneylvania, had been notified that Gen Jenkins was at Chambersburg, Pa., and that he had been plundering the houses among the mountains. Our forces are said to occupy Gettysburg, Pa, and McConnellsville. At the latter place they supplied themselves to whatever they wanted in the stores, and after collecting a large number of horses and cattle, moved off towards Hancock. The Yankees are impressing all the negroes into service for throwing up fortications, dro. Nothing definite was known at Baltimore of the movements and position of Lee are secured; and we appeal to our friends at home and Hooker.

From Vicksburg it is stated that firing con+ tinnes to be heard, and had grown heavier than ever before.

Official dispatches state that Gen. Chambers such three of their transports before Memphis on the 20th and disabled a fourth.

Gen. Taylor, it is said, fought and whipped the Eederals opposite Baton Rouge on Sunday last. It is stated that Col. Lyons, commanding our cavalry outside of Port Hudson, attacked Grierson, in Banks' army, on Monday last, capturing fifty prisoners and fity-seven wagons, and putting the remainder to flight.

LATE, IMPORTANT, AND RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE FROM THE TRANS-MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT-VICKS-BURG, AND PORT HUDSON.

I trust I am no less sensitive about the honor of We have at last direct and positive intelligence North Carolina than the Standard, but I have from beyond the Mississippi, which clears up all never discovered anything in the denunciations doubts, myths and rumors which have been vexof Mr. Holden and his poisonous doctrines, that appeared to me to be the least offensive to North ng us for some weeks past.

On the contrary, the Richmond papers. rentleman, just from the headquarters of General have been careful to disclaim any intention to Kirby Smith, who has official relations with that reflect upon the honor, patriotism, or valor, of army, and who crossed the Mississippi river at North Carolinians, whenever they have seen fit Natchez tast Friday. to rebuke the Standard. Mr. Holden must think to demounce him is to Insult North Carolina. It

The first important fact we learn is, that Gen. Smith is fully posted as to the situation at Vicksburg and Port Hudson, and is directing the forces of his department with a view to second General Johnston on this side of the river in the work of raising the seige of those two cities. Gen. Smith's headquarters were at Shrieveport, from which point he has easy water communication with the Mississippi, to a point near Vicksburg, by the Red, Black and Tensas rivers. His troops are already at the posts selected for them in carrying out Gen. Smith's great plan, which is to cut off General Grant's supplies. To this end Gen. Wa ker's division, of Gen. Dick Taylor's army, was already at Young's Point with 7,000 men, and the artillery necessary to command the river as, to transports and other wooden vessels.

bloody battle field, are sufficient proof that such Three thousand men, under Brig. Gen. Green, were on the Peninsula opposite to Port Hudson, and in a position, with the aid of Gen. Gardner's batteries, to completely close the river to the enemy's boats.

Marmaduke, of Gen. Price's army, was near Helens, and Gen. Price, with 17,000 men, was on the march for that point, his object being the same to command the river and cut off Grant's supplies. The great fall in the Mississippi river, 28 feet below high water mark, afforded great facilities to these operations. The narrowness of the stream, forced passing vessels to come within easy range of the shore batteries, while the river had sunk so low that the attacking parties could not be reached by the enemy's gunboats.

The garrison of Port Hudson and Vicksburg are both well provisioned and in fine spirits-each uneasy about the fate of the other, but entirely confident in their own situation. They have abundant supplies. News has been received from Vicksburg up to Saturday night. Grant's army is undoubtedly 'suffering for want of water, and suffering more from being obliged to drink the water of the Big Black, which is very unwholesome. As our informant says, Gen. Johnston in no hurry to move, for this, among other res sons: that he does not like to interfere with action of the waters. . He is in regular comcation with the West of the Mississippi, s

THE FORREST DIFF ICULTY. We i ave already mentioned the fact of the al-terestion reported to have occurred between Gen. Forrest an'd one of his Lieutenants name Gould. The Chattan loogs Rebelgives the following version of the difficulty :

For two or three days past we have been made equainted with the fact that a personal difficulty had occurred at Columbia between Gen. Forres and Lieut. Gould, of Morton's battery, in Forest's command. From motives of prudence we forbore to make public m. untion of such news until we could obtain the facts in the case. We have since learned the particula."s from a friend, every way reliable, who writes us from Columbia. Lieut. Gould is the son of a well known wealth merchant of Nashville, and was attached to Capt Morton's battery of light artillery. During the engagement at Sand Hill, Ga., on Forrest's recent Rome expedition, and more recently at Eranklin Tenn., it was charged by Gen. Forrest that Gouis had deserted his guns and left them in the hand of his sergeant. Forrest then requested the chief of artillery to relieve Gould from duty and to promote his sergeant in his stead. So soon as Gould heard of it, burning with remorse and under the weight of mortfied pride he sought the General who was then dining at Mrs. $7th. Gallaways. The General seeing that the Lieutennot was exsaperated, informed him that he could see him at the quartermaster's office after dinner. Accordingly after dinner, Forrest found Lieut. Gould quietly awaiting his arrival. Lieut. Gould then interrogated General Forrest as to whether he made the charges we have alluded to above, and Forrest replied by inclining his head. Gould then pronounced the charges false. It is said G snapped a pistol from under his coat, but this he emphatically denies. Forrest quickly opened a pocket knife and stabbed Gould between the 6th and 7th rib on the side, the full lenghth of the blade, about three inches, penetrating the lung. Gould then immediately turned and shot Forrest the ball entering the left lumbar region and passing directly down to the crest of the illium-the y extracted by Surgeon S. W. Fryarson, assisted by Dr. Newman. He is not considered dangerously hurt. Lieu!. Gould is at the Nelson House, Columbia, and will also most likely recover,

From an admirable sermon preached in Sa

testant Episcopal Church, we take the following eloquent extract :

mitted to know or make known in regard to Hooker's movements, is that he has advanced backwards with considerable celerity."

The Star claims that the cavalry fights at Aldie and Middleburg resulted in Fedarah victories. It admits a loss of 200 killed, wounded and missing. Col. Doty, of Maine, was mortally wounded. A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Hooker's army under date of the 18th June, says :

This army in the March on Monday suffered untold miseries. The heat was oppressive in the extreme, with scarcely a breath of air stirring .-The roads were ankle deep in dust, and, to cap the climax, the springs and streams along the way were all dry. The whole country was filled with stragglers. Men could not be kept in ranks. Every piece of woods was filled with them, and no coaxing or threatening could prevail on them to move on. The ambulances were crowded with those who had given out completely. I presume there were as many as a thousand cases of sunstroke, of which at least a hundred were fatal .-The open country was crowded with these poor fellows, dropping down by the roadside in vast numbers, and in all directions. Water, water, water, is the cry on every hand.

THE LATEST FROM VICKSBURG.

A St. Louis telegram, of the 19th of June, to the Democrat, says:

Our approaches from Sherman's corps were pushed to-day to the rebel rifle pits, and to within twenty yards of their bastions. The rebels threw lighted shell over the parapets on approaches, and received in return twenty-three hand grenades, twenty of which exploded, driving the rebels out.

On Friday, the rebels cut away the timber in rear of their lines, and opened on us with eleveninch shells, and two or three siege guns. Gen. Logan silenced their mortars with his 30 pounder Parrots and 92-pounders. Thirteen of our gunboats patrol the river between Helena and Young's Point. The gunboat Marmora destroyed the town of Enrico on Saturday.

A Cairo telegram of the 15th instant, says The rebels hold Richmond and New Carthage, and their forces are being daily increased from the Washita river. Troops are sent across the river from De Sota during the night by which Pemberton is reinforced. The rebels get all their information, and supplies are taken to Pemberton's starving army by that route.

A Knoxville telegram of the 18th, says that Grant will undoubtedly take Vickburg, then flank Jackson from below, capture Port Hudson, and strike at Montgomery and Mobile at the same time.

FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

The prudential mystery which has involved the operations of the army in Northern Virginia seems to be slowly unfolding itself, and reveasl to-day the main body of our army, under Ewell and Longstreet, in Maryland and Pensylvania The crossing of the latter is believed to have taken place on Saturday and Sunday, at Leesburg, at which point and on which occasion occurred tion for his offense. HAVE BEEN APPOINTED BY THE Secretary of the Treasury, Chief Agent for the purchase of Cotton for the Confederate Government within the State of North Carolina, and will pay for the same in 7 per cent. Bonds or Cash.

Sub-Agents visiting the different parts of the State, buying in my name, will have written certificates of appointment.

By order of the "Secretary of the Treasury," all Cotton purchased by myself, or my Agents, on and after the 18th day of March, 1863, will be paid for in 7 per cont, Bonds or Cash, and not 8 per cent. Bonds as stated in a former advertisement. Up to that time, however, the 8 per cent. Bonds will be furnished as stated.

Patrietic citizens are now offered an opportunity to aid the Government by selling to it their Cotton rather than to private capitalists.

THE CONCERNOF J. P. KNIGHT & CO. having been disselved this day by J. P. Knight, I take this method of notifying my friends and former customers that I am no longer a partner in the concern. They will henceforth please address me in person. I shall continue to carry on the Commission business, and solicit consignments of Tobacco, Colton and produce generally. Having been engaged in the commission business for the last eight years, I flatter myself that I can give satisfaction to all who may favor me with their consignments. Hoping that my old customers will continue to stand by me in the future as they have done in the past, I pledge my best efforts to give the utmost satisfaction not only to them, following gentlemen :

A G. McI'LWANE, R. F. LESTER, THOS. WALLACE, President of the Exchange Bank. JNO. KEVAF, President of the Farmers Bank. and the merchants and business men of Petersburg generally. B. M. ROBERTSON. Petersourg, Va., April 30, 1863. May 13-tf
