THE NEWS.

We have nothing important from Charleston. The enemy seems to be making slow progress towards the speedy capture of that city. On Tuesday evening the enemy made another assault on battery Wagner, but metwith a decided repulse. The State Journal of yesterday publishes the following dispatch from Capt. E. Mallett, brother of Col. Peter Mallett, dated Charleston, Aug. 27 : "I am now on my third visit of aix days to this fort (Wagner). I am very well. The fort is much defaced but is as strong as ever. The troops are in good spirits and fight the enemy well. We have no idea of being overpowered. The enemy have thrown shells into the city, but that is not taking it. Our batteries on Sullivan's Island have been so

CAPTURE OF TWO GUNBOATS ON THE RAPPAHANNOOK.

An expediton, under command of Lieut. John Taylor Wood, left this city last Wednesday week and proceeded to the lower Rappahannock river, where unsuccessful efforts were made for several nights in succession to get at the Yankes gunbosts. On Saturday night, the 22nd inst., the object of the expedition was crowned with success Two of the enemy's gunposts, the Satelite and the Beliance, we'e boarded, and both captured. It was a most daring adventure ; our men had to climb over bulwarks eight feet high, surrounded by nettings and awnings, and board the vessels in the face of the enemy's fire. Several of the Yankees were severely wounded, among them Capt. Walters of the Reliance, dangerousir, and three mortally. One negro was killed. On our ide, Lieut. Hoge was wounded severely in the neck, Midshipman Cook and three nien slightly. Among the prisoners taken are John Robinson and brother, of Middlesex, notorious scoundrels Two flags and a large number of spy-glasses, quadrants, &c., captured with the result, have reached Richmond. We append Lieut Wood's report of the brilliant affair, received at the Navy Department:

OFFICIAL REPORT. OF THE ENGAGE. MENT BETWEEN THE ACABAMA AND THE HATTERAS.

The following extract from a report of Captain Raphael Semmes, commanding C. S Isteamer"Ala bams," to the Secretary of the Navy, gives a correct statement of the action between the Alabama ard the Hatteras:

C. S. STEAMER ALABAMA, Bahia, May 17th, 1863.

I arrived at Galveston (under sail) on the 11th of January, and just before nightfall made the enemy's flest lying off the bar, consisting of five ships-of-war. One of the steamers was soon after perceived to get under way, and steer in our di-rection. I ordered steam to be got up, but kept sail on the ship as a decoy, that I might entice the enemy's ship sufficiently far from the floet to offer battle. I wore ship, and stood away from the bar, permitting the enemy to ar proach me by slow degrees. When the enemy had approached sufficiently near, I took in all sail, and wearing S118,519.22 The following gentlemen were appointed a com-mittee to audit Dr Deems' report, viz: A M Gor-man, John G Williams and S H Young, Esqu. Our fire was promptly returned and a brisk action ensued, which lasted, however, only thirteen minutes, as at the end of that time the ly thirteen minutes, as at the end of that this the enemy fired an off-gun and showed a light; and upon being balled by us, to know if he bad sur-rendered, he replied that he had, and that he was in a sinking condition. I immediately despatch-ed boats to his assistance, and had just time to re-move the crew when the ship west down. The casualties were slight on both sides, although the action was fought at a distance of from one hundred and fifty to four hundred yards. Our shot all told on his hull about the water line, and hence the small number of killed and wounded on the part of the enemy-two of the former and three-of the latter. We had note killed, and only one wounded. The Hatteras mounted eight guns, and had a crew of 18 officers and 108 men. The Alabama also mounted eight guns (with a small captured piece, a 24-pounder, too light to be of any service), and had a crew of 110 men, exclusive of officers. Four of the Hatterss' guns were 32-pounders-the same calibre as our broad-

CITATE OF NORTH CAROLINA .. FRANKLIN COUNTY-SUPERIOR COURT FALL TERM. 1862.

Witness, W. H. Furman, Clerk of the said Court, at Louisburg, the 2nd Monday alter the 4th Monday of September, 1863.

PRESIDENT:

Charleston harbor extremely doubtful.

We learn that Gen. Beauregard recently sent several competent engineers to Fort Sumter for the purpose of inquiring into the condition of the place. They report that notwithstanding the damage to the wall, the fort is by no means untenable or insequre .--It will therefore bo held. It is stated that Gen. B. entertains no idea of surrendering it.

The situation in Virginia remains unchanged. Both armies are quietly resting on the banks of the Rappahannock. The Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate forces was in Richmond last Wednesday. It will be gratifying to the people of the Confederacy to the retreat of our army, and I was unable, until know that he is in the enjoyment of excellent the there affect health and spirits.

From the Southwest we have rumors which, if true, are important ; but we place little reliance in anything that comes from that quarter. One report states that the Federals were badly whipped in West Louisiana. by Gen. Kirby 'Smith's forces' a. few days | latter to the rear. Taey in their turn communisince. Another report is that Gen. Price recen ly gave the Federals a decent thrashing, and that Grant has gone up the river from Vicksburg, with a large force, to look after P.ice. There is said to be an expedition on foot to devastate North Louisiana and then enter Texas. The Federal transport, City of Madison, freighted with ammunition for the expedition, was blown up on Wednesday, by the explosion of a box of powder in the hold, and nearly two hundred persons were killed. Sixty bodies were recovered on Thursday. Grant has latety issued orders to the citizens of Warren and Hinds counties, Miss., to return to their homes and resume their usual avocations; that they shall be protected in all their property, except such as is necessary for the army. All property taken by the army shall be duly purchased by the commissioned officers and paid for. He advises the people to regard their slaves free, and contract with them for labor, or dispense with their service. The order was to go into effect on the 25th.

Information from Richmond states that the stock of ammunition in the Confederate States is abundant, and in any contingency now deemed possible the supply will be ample.

Gold is said to have fallen in Richmond A correspondent of the State Journal states that the Yankees at Newbern are preparing to make another raid into the interior of this State. They are said to be 8000 but a positive command from him will induces Finally, I reply, that neither the works on

TERRIBLE MISSILES.

The Brandon correspondent of the Atlanta Apcal eays :

I had forgotten to mention in my previous let-ters the effects of the sub-term thous, the inven-tion of Brigadier Geo. Bains, used in the evacustan of Jackson. These shells were located for the bepelit of the enemy in case they followed up

I learn now from a gentleman who remained in the city and witnessed what he relates? that the advance of tre enemy, a large body of cavalry, cres ing Pesrl river with a view to fall upon our rear, marched over and exploded a bed of these shells.

About 50 of the enemy were killed and wound ed, and a large number of torses, and the explosion occasioned an immediate stampede of these cated the panie to the infantry following them, till the whole party was involved in confusion and | days. panic, those in the rear imagining that the advance had fallen into an ambush; or were engaging our whole force . The realt of the explosion of these shells was so serio + that no attempt was made by the Yankees to strance by this road ; but a search being made for further shells, which resulted in another explosion and several casualties, the enemy desisted from the attempt, believ ng the whole road similar mined. I am convinced that Gen. Rains' plan should be extensively used, as well in our armies as in the approachas to cities threatened with raids. General Rains, an officer of the old army, is a thoroughly scientific man, and has deveted many vears to the perfection of his system, which, I understand, meets with the full approbation of the War Department, and will, wherever used, be effective in discomfiting the enemy and checking his advance.

THE SINKING OF THE VANDERBILT .-- The story of the sinking the Yankee steamer Vanderbilt by a Confederate vessel of war, said to be the Georgis. begins to assume an air of probability. The Mobile Tribune of Saturday says :

We have late news from Havana, by the arrival of a vessel running the blockade. When she left, it was rumo: el, and pretty generally be lieved at Havana, that Captain Semmes had had an engagement with the Yankee steamer Vanderbilt, and had sunk-her with a large less of life. The V., it will be recollected, bas been for a long time in search of the "rebel pirate," as the Yankees designate Semmes. An account of the enregement has been published in La Habana, a Havana parer, and was received both from Key West and Nassau, and was believed by Yankee and other shippers. It is, we think, quite probable. The action is reported to have occurred off the Bahamas.

GEN. PEMBERTON -A Mississippi correspondent of the Atlanta Appeal writes :

I am assured by undoubted authority that Gen. Pemberion has notified the President that nothing of this attack.

subordinate commander at Fort Wagner for tronsmission, is fire would be opened on the city of Charleston from batteries already established within easy and effective [range] of the heart of the city." This communication, to my address, was without signature, and was of course returned.

About half past 1 this morning one of your fatteries did actually open fire, and threw a number of heavy rifle shells into the city, the inhabitants of which, of course, were asleep and un-warned. About 9 o'clock this morning the communication alluded to above was returned to these Headquarters, bearing your recognized official signature; and it can now be noticed as your deliberate official act.

Among nations not barbarous the usages of war prescribe that, when a city is about to be attacked, timely notice shall be given by the attacking commander, in order that non-combatants may have an onnormality for withdrawing beyond its limits. Generally the time allowed is from one to three days-that is, time for the withdrawsl, in good faith, of at least the women and children. You, sir, give only four hours, knowing that your notice, under existing circumstances, could not reach me in less than two hours, and that not less than the same time would be required for an answer to be conveyed from this city to Battery Wagner. With this knowledge, you threaten to open fire on the city, not to oblige its surrender, but to force me to evacuate these works, which you, assisted by a great naval force, have been attacking in vain for more than forty Batteries Wagner and Gregg and Fort Sumter are nearly due north from your batteries on Morris Island, and in distance therefrom varying from half mile to two and a quarter miles; this city, on the other hand, is to the north west, and quite five miles distant from the battery opened against it this morning.

It would appear, sir, that, despairing of reducing these works, you now resort to the novel measure of turning your guns against the old men, the wo men and children, and the hospitals of a sleeping city ; an act of inexcusable barbarity from your own confessed point of sight, inasmuch as you allege that the "complete demolition of Fort Sumter" within a few hours by your guns seems to you "a matter of certainty."

Your omission to attach your signature to such a grave paper, must show the recklessness of the course upon which you have adventured. While the facts that you knowingly fixed a limit for receiving an answer to your demand, which made it almost beyond the possibility of receiving any reply within that time, and that you actually did open fire and throw a number of the most destructive missiles ever used in war, into the midst of, city taken unawares, and filled with sleeping women and children, will give you a bad eminence in history-oven in the history of this war. I am only surprised, sir, at the limits you have set to your demand. If, in order to attain the abandonment of . Morris Island and Fort Sumter, you feel authorized to fire on this city, why did you not also include the works on Sullivan's and James' Island-nay, even the city of Charleston -in the same demand ?

Since you have felt warranted in inaugurating this method of reducing batteries in your immedeate front, which were found otherwise impregnable, and a mode of warfare which I confidently declare to be atrocious and unworthy of any soldier. I now solemnly warn you, that if you fire again on this city from your Morris Island batteries, without granting a somewhat more reasona ble time to remove non-combatants, I shall feel impelled to employ such stringent means of retaliation as may be available during the continuance

It is hoped at the next meeting more decisive steps will be taken under a charter, which shall put this great charity into practical operation. We love the vigorous manner in which the Mobile Register lashes cowards and croakers .-The following is a specimen, which we re-produce for the benefit of these miserable abortions of humanity, wherever they are found :

A WORD TO FAINT HEARTS .- Did it ever occur to any of these strong nerved patriots who have already gone down on their knees ready to take the Yankee oath of allegiance, or, who are stammering jargon words about "reconstruction." in their mortal fright of the early coming of the enemy-did it ever occur to them how they would feel if they should go off half-cocked, give up their characters as men, and become convicted and disgraced as traitors to liberty, and yet, after all, the brave and true men of the S.uth should. carry the country gloriously through to independence? If it has not occurred to them, we advise them to fall to thinking about it at once. For, just so sure as God is just and man loves liberty better than subjugation, just so sure is this struggle to be crowned with national Independence. There are not fools and cowards enough who dream of peace from submission, born under this Southern sin to prevent it. These men may disgrace and damn bemselves to eternal infamy, as c avens, dunhills slaves if they will, but they cannot drag down to the same pit of degredation the free-born men and master race of this Southern land. The blood of the martyred brave which has watered the soil of every Confederate State criesshame on those who talk or think of yielding-who dream of peace except upon the terms of the perfect and glorious independence for which we have drawn the sword. It is time for the true men of the land to speak out and frown down the cowards who think of betraying the country to the infamy and ruin of Yankee domination. We call upon the press and men of nerve and influence everywhere to take their stand to rekindle the fires of patriotism, to encourage or silence the weak-hearted and the croakers, to make new vows of devotion to the cause, and to drive every skulker from the army to his duty to his comrades and his country.

THE ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA. The editor of the Lynchburg Republican deives the following from a conversation with the Hon. John Goode, Jr., who is just from the army of Gen. Lee:

He informs us that a spirit of devetion to the cause, and an enthusiasm exists with the troops, which at no time has ever been exceeded. At the headquarters of some of the division commanders he had an opportunity for observation the leigh Register, a newspoper published in the city which leaves no doubt of the existence of this of Releigh, for six weeks successively, notifying the manders he, had an opportunity for observation feeling in the army. He was invited to addres the soluiers, which request he complied with, and | said court, to be held for the county of Franklin, at in every allusion made to the ability of the army to beat back the invader, and to the ultimate succe s of the cause and to the principles for which we are contending loud and enthusiastic cheers rent the sky. The strength of the army is daily increasing, numbers arrive almost every hour, and that confidence in itself is felt by the army which will make it invincibel.

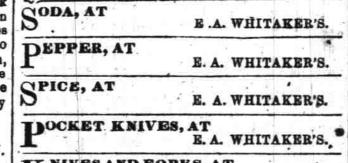

The North Carolina troops are staupch to the aug 15 6w core. They look with contempt upon the efforts made by the traitors at home to disparage the cause, but a certain feeling of mortification is mixed up with it, that they who have illustrated the tone and temper of the great masses of the people of these States upon many a battle field, shoud have even a breath of the poliution engendered by traitors at home, towards the pure field of the escutcheon they hold aloft. The next field of battle will be made gory by the heroic deeds of the sons of the old North State.
