REPUBLICATION, of the London Quarterly Review, the Edinburgh Review, the North British Review, the Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York immediately on their arrival by the British Steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals, Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh Edition.

They embrace the views of three great parties in England—Tory, Whig and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Radical. The "North British Review" is more of a Religious character, having been originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, being conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its Literary character is of the very highest order.

EARLY COPIES.

A late arrangement with the British publishers of Blackwood's Magazine secures to us early sheets of that work, by which we shall be able to place the entire number in the hands of subscribers before any portion of it can be reprinted in any of the American Journals. Dr. A. F. Coopers' Spino-Abdominal Supporters.

THE Subscribers have on hand a supply of the above valuable supporters, which are recommended for all persons, afflicted with muscular debility, Round shoulders, or prolapsus Uteri.

Proff. Mott thinks they are very well adapted for some varieties of incipient spinal distortions, as they afford the useful combination of shoulder brace and Abdominal supporter, with very decided support to the spinal column.

The above braces are recommended by the Physicians generally, who have seen them, and we have sold a number to citizens of this place, who are highly pleased with them.

A gentleman observed a few days since, that he had been wearing a very celebrated body brace for some time, and that he would not give one of the above, for fifty such.

☞ Star and Standard.

For California, Ho!

A NORTH CAROLINA COMPANY of one hundred persons is now being formed in this City, for gathering gold, and perhaps for settlement in the fine climate and unsurpassed advantages of California—upon the following plan: The Company to be composed of sober, moral, and respectable citizens: each member pays two hundred dollars into the common fund by the first of March, and to be ready to embark at Wilmington, about the middle of that month, upon the voyage around the cape. With said fund purchase and fit a good vessel, with stores and provisions for the voyage, including three mouth's extra provisions, and shuck matrasses, bedding and gold mining and washing tools and implements, for each member. Every member to procure and carry his or her own clothes, sufficient for twelve months wear, and good fire arms and ammunition.

Any member, besides carrying his own tools of trade, will be permitted to carry his wife and children, by paying the above sum for each one so carried; and respectable single ladies will be admitted into the Company on the same terms. Separate accommodations will be allotted to the females, and every attention given for their security and comfort during the voyage and afterwards, by their male escorts. And as wives are far scarcer, and in much greater demand than gold, in California, a few of the stout hearted and lovely girls, and widows, of the old North State, would assuredly find the enterprise a princely speculation—in immediately getting rich husbands in that fine country.

A late writer from California says: "The persons most needed here are, wives, sempstresses, house-keepers, milliners, tailors, carpenters, blacksmiths, masons, shoemakers and tinners—all of whom would receive the most gratifying remuneration. A mechanic can hardly be had for twenty-five dollars per day, a common labourer for one hundred and fifty per month, or even a cook for fifty dollars per month." Large fortunes therefore certainly await the prudent, who now go there. Wives stand at the head of the lis of those most wanted. Just think of that! Why, the quick sales of the ship loads of English women for tobacco, in Virginia, in the olden times, would be a fool to the active mataimonial market of California. Our Carolina girls and widows, old and young, ugly and pretty, would go off like hot cakes—not for husbands and tobacco, but for husbands and gold! Think of that! and be glad.

On reaching California, sell the vessel and divide the sales among the Company, which would more than repay to each member the $200 paid into the fund, as aforesaid, besides passage and extra provisions, free of expense. And while every member will be bound to stand by, assist and defend each other, all will be left free to work upon his own hook, in California. And although thousands are rushing there, there will be room enough for all, and enough for each, since it is known that the gold deposits extend over a space of one thousand miles long, by hundreds of miles in width, and so rich, that $100,000 in gold was lately taken out of one place of three hundred yards square!

But should one hundred persons not be enrolled by the 1st of March, then the sea voyage will be given up, and the Company, then formed, take the overland journey, from this City early in April, and so have the pleasant plentiful months in which to make the trip. Suitable covered waggons and harness, and two strong workhorses for each waggon, and the bedding aforesaid, and the mining implements to be purchased by the fund, and provision as needed by the way. Each member carrying his own clothing and arms and ammunition, as aforesaid and the light tools of his trade. Four persons to each waggon—the ladies to have separate waggons, and every care and attention. Thus in four months, the Company might, by easy stages, reach their destination: then sell the horses, and keep the waggons, as moveable houses, for themselves at the mines.

Application for admission into the Company, to be made, for the present, to me, personally, or by letter, post-paid. JOSEPH B. HINTON,
Agent of the Company.

$50 REWARD.

I WILL pay the above Reward, for the apprehension and delivery to me, at my Residence, near Emmit, Wilkinson County, Georgia, of my negro man ERIN; or 25 dollars for his delivery in any safe Jail, so that I can get him. Said negro is about 45 or 50 years old, of mulatto color, 6 feet one or two inches high, stout built, high forehead, heavy beard and a little grey, bushy head of hair, teeth nearly all gone, particularly his back teeth; voice smooth, and is plausible when spoken to; weighs about 160 or 70 pounds; had on when he left, a blue mixed homespun frockcoat, coarse homespun shirt, black satinet pants, gray mixed homespun vest, home-made shoes, closed with tanned leather strings, a wool hat, white and flat crown, nearly worn out. No doubt he will try to pass off as a free negro, and will tell a plausible tale to suit his design.
