A SCIENTIFIC MEDICINE.

Great experience and judgment are required to make a valuable, and at the same time, innocent purgative.

This is possessed only by fere. The great majority of the remedies advertised of this class are manufactured by persons who have no idea of the relative or individual powers of the drugthey use. It is this cause, more than any other, which occasions the inertness and often injurious effects, produced by advertised remedies. And hence the general prejudice which prevails against them. New there is a great difference in this respect, with regard to the Fills made by Dr. B. Braudreth, and consequently, their superior claims upon the public. Each of the articles composing the Brandreth Pills, are prepared in that way which will secure their benefi-cial effects to the system in the safest and easiest manner.
