FOR CAPITALISTS!

Y estate of a Deed of Trust, and for the purpose of selling the specified, the aforementioned, as Trustees, will sell, at public auction, on Tuesday, the 10th day of May next, the following Valuable Property, to-wit: One Lot, in the town of Mockville known as the Factory lot, containing sixteen acres; on which is a large Cotton gin, and all the necessary buildings, by the side of the river, and a large number of other improvements. Also, an acre Lot, adjoining the same, with a good frame Dwelling House thereon. Also, one-third of a Town Lot, on which is a Blacksmith shop. Also, the Dwelling House and Lot near the same, and other valuable property, and other improvements. Lot adjoining the same, containing 15 acres of land, adjoining the town of Mockville, and two likely young Negroes. Also, valuable Household and Kitchen Furniture, a complete set of Blacksmith tools, and other valuable articles, including 700 lbs. and many other valuable articles, not possible to mention.

The Cotton Factory is a large Brick building, three stories high, 40 by 75 feet, with an Engine

Spinning Machines, Pickers, Drawing Frames, Pindlers, Thriftle Frames, and all the necessary di- cures. Also, 3 wool Carding Machines, the whole complete again. This property is situated in a healthy and thriving village, in the centre of a rich and populous County, and affords a fine opportunity capital and enterprise, for a profitable investment.
The great Central Rail Road, of the completion of which no reasonable doubt can be entertained will necessarily pass within 15 or 20 miles of the Mills, and will add greatly to the worth of this already valuable property.

A credit of ten, twelve and eighteen months will be given on the Factory, and twelve months on the rest of the real estate, and six months of the personal property.
