ILL be sold, by public auction, at the Register Office, in the City of Raleigh, Ion Monday, the second day of July, the establishment of the Raleigh Register, belonging to the 'estate of the late Weston R. Gales; including two Printing Presses, extensive fonts of Newspaper, Book and Job type, all the necessary furniture and fixtures pertaining to the office, and its subscription.

This is perhaps one of the most desirable printing inducement to purchasers. The Register was estaba package of wholes, $165; halves, 82,50; quar- tished in 1799, by the Father of the late Editor and the Grandfather of the present Editor, and under his auspices attained a support, which it has steadily maintained until this day. It has therefore quite a large circulation, and an extensive Advertising and Job patronage. The Establishment has been so long identified with the State and its institutions, that, by proper management, its patronage may not only be retained, but increased.
