The Buffalo Springs. THE recent appearance of Asiatic Cholera in the principal cities and several of the interior owns in the State of Virginia, together with the general prevalence of the Cholera Diarrhoea throughout the country, induces the belief that its ravages will be much more widely extended than in the memorable visitation of 1832. Under the influence of these appalling apprehensions, it is perfectly natural for every individual to look around him for some place of safety during the sojourn of this fearful vis-iter. The all-absorbing question presents itself to every one: What shall I do, or where shall I go to escape this terrible scourge?

Among the few places of comparative security, I beg leave to call the attention of the public and particularly of those residing in the cholera districts, to the Buffalo Mineral Spring, situated in the upper end of Mecklenburg County, Va., two era. Such is believed to be the effect of the Buffalo Water. It is especially worthy of remark in this regard, that in almost every country and region visited by this epidemic, its appearance is preceded by some derangement of the stomach and bowels; or what are called premonitory symptoms, engendered, it is supposed, by some pestilential poison, diffused in the general atmosphere. It is to prevent the coming on of these precursory symptoms, as likewise to hold them in check when they exist, that the Buffalo Water is recommended While it imparts tone to the stomach and increases the appetite, it stimulates the liver to a healthy secretion of bile, and that fatal current of fluids, drawn, it may be, to the occasion, but a matured opinion, based on experience and observation in its use, in the ordina- of Rheumatism. It is certainly within the last three weeks, and they have not the least familiar of the laws governing the animal machine, that whatever increases the secretory action of the kidneys, lessens the quantity and changes the quality of the fluids thrown on the bowels.

Apart from the value of this Spring as a prophylactic in warding off the Cholera, it is located in an lactic in warding the cholera in the lactic in warding the cholera in an lactic in elevated and healthy section of country, where that fearful disease has never yet made its appearance. The proprietor has made arrangements for the comfortable reception of three hundred visiters. Those
