

POETRY.

LABORARE EST ORARE.
(To labor is to pray.)
BY THE LATE MRS. FRANCES SARGENT OSGOOD.

Pause not to dream of the future before us;
Pause not to weep the wild career that comes o'er us;
Dark, how Creation's deep, musical chorus,
Unintermitted, goes up into heaven's
Never the ocean's wave falters in flowing;
Never the little seed stops in its growing;
More and more richly the rose-heart keeps glowing.
Till from its nourishing stem it is risen.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Aurora.
LEGENDS OF BRUNSWICK.
BATTLE OF KENDAL.
Long anterior to the reign of the Caliph Haroun Alraschid, there existed a little Commonwealth called Brunswick; it was situated somewhere between the arctic and antarctic circles, and of such very remote antiquity that its longitude has never been determined; and, from the weapons used by the natives in battle, some have supposed it an antediluvian country, for, since the time of Noah, no record has been found of using chingquepin switches as warlike instruments. It was located on its eastern borders by the waters of the dark rolling Clarendon, which disembodyed itself into the ocean by two mouths, forming a delta or island, not dissimilar to that of the Nile.

made an unsuccessful experiment at inducing...
Grand Consolidated Lottery of Md.
Chartered by Act of Assembly, drawn under supervision of State authorities, appointed by the executive of the State of Maryland.

HEAD QUARTERS!
Office N. W. corner of Baltimore & Calvert-sts.
Museum Building, Baltimore, Md.
GOLVIN & CO.
The most brilliant array of Prizes ever sold in the...
Capital Prize $20,000, No. 30 46 66; sold to a correspondent in Pennsylvania.

MARYLAND LOTTERIES
FOR JULY 1850.
Orders per mail receive prompt attention.

LEATHER-BELTING.
N. Hunt & Co.,
No. 29 Devonshire Street, Boston.
Manufacture and keep constantly on hand, for sale,
Best Oak Tanned Leather Belting,
BELT RIVETS AND BUCKLES,
SUPERIOR BELT CEMENT,
AND EXTRA QUALITY LACE LEATHER.

Spring and Summer Goods
For 1850.
R. Tucker and Son,
WHO constantly keep on hand an extensive assortment of the best and most desirable, as well as fashionable,
FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, are now receiving their Spring and Summer supply for 1850.

THE AMERICAN FARMER,
published in the City of Baltimore, Maryland, contains the 25th volume of the Register on the 1st July, 1850, (which will be the 38th of its existence). It is published on the 1st of each month, each number containing thirty-two large copper plates.
Price: $1 per annum; six copies $5; for thirteen for $10; thirty for $20, in advance.

THE FOUNTAIN HOTEL,
(FORMERLY BELTZHOVER'S)
Head of Light near Baltimore St., BALTIMORE.
THE increased patronage of this long established and popular Hotel, under the management of its present proprietor, has inspired him with further energy and determination, and an expense of attention to his or that of his Assistants will be spared, to maintain with unwearied fidelity the reputation it held all over the country, in its 'palmy days' of Beltzhoever's proprietorship.

New Firm.
THE Publisher having connected themselves in business, under the Firm of BUFFALO & COOKE, take this occasion to inform the Public, that they will keep constantly on hand all articles necessary for the uses of the Family or Firm. Their stock consists in part of the following articles:

Gold Watches and Jewelry.
NEW arrival of a large and fashionable assortment of the above just at hand and for sale, cheaper than ever, at PALMER & RAMSAY's Jewelry Store.

FORWARDING.
I WILL attend to the forwarding of all Goods at Wilmington and Fayetteville, at the usual commission; and will, in all cases, forward by first boat, under reference to lines. All orders for purchasers will be strictly attended to. Direct to care of W. BRANSON, Fayetteville and Wilmington.

Notice.
ALL Persons who pay their Taxes in the Raleigh District, are called on by this notice, that when they come to the Court House to give in their list of Taxes, especially invite them to come prepared to pay their Taxes in the Raleigh District for the year 1850.

Notice.
THE Underigned, having been heretofore largely imposed upon by the presentation to him of accounts, which he had given no authority for collecting, and having promptly paid all such claims, hereby gives notice to all persons that hereafter, he, either as Trustee, Agent, Guardian, or in any other capacity, will pay no accounts of any character whatsoever, unless the same shall have been expressly authorized by him in writing. As the Underigned keeps no accounts in his own behalf with any one, but pays as he goes, it is useless for him to say that he will pay no accounts based on alleged verbal orders.

THE UNION INSTITUTE, will close on the 15th of August next. Grading and Address on the afternoon preceding, at which time present and the public generally are invited to be present.
Greenboro', July 6, 1850.

LAND FOR SALE.
A VALUABLE tract of land for sale adjoining the City of Raleigh, containing about one hundred and fifty acres. For terms &c. apply to M. A. Bledsoe, who is authorized to sell it, and will show it to any person desirous of purchasing.
EDWARD MALLETT, Agent.
July 10th, 1850.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The natural curiosities of the place were a wolf, an eagle, and an old gentleman by the name of Smith, who entailed his name upon the city. The eastern shore of the Clarendon, opposite the Commonwealth hereafter indicated, was a perfect wilderness; the monotonous desert, alone relieved by a bold and elevated spot, where once stood, in very remote times, a Castle of no small repute, denominated and yeop't "Gander Hall," boasting high above the brow of the river, so called from a vague tradition of the proprietor of the Baronial mansion having once

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

THE UNION INSTITUTE, will close on the 15th of August next. Grading and Address on the afternoon preceding, at which time present and the public generally are invited to be present.
Greenboro', July 6, 1850.

LAND FOR SALE.
A VALUABLE tract of land for sale adjoining the City of Raleigh, containing about one hundred and fifty acres. For terms &c. apply to M. A. Bledsoe, who is authorized to sell it, and will show it to any person desirous of purchasing.
EDWARD MALLETT, Agent.
July 10th, 1850.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

THE UNION INSTITUTE, will close on the 15th of August next. Grading and Address on the afternoon preceding, at which time present and the public generally are invited to be present.
Greenboro', July 6, 1850.

LAND FOR SALE.
A VALUABLE tract of land for sale adjoining the City of Raleigh, containing about one hundred and fifty acres. For terms &c. apply to M. A. Bledsoe, who is authorized to sell it, and will show it to any person desirous of purchasing.
EDWARD MALLETT, Agent.
July 10th, 1850.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

THE UNION INSTITUTE, will close on the 15th of August next. Grading and Address on the afternoon preceding, at which time present and the public generally are invited to be present.
Greenboro', July 6, 1850.

LAND FOR SALE.
A VALUABLE tract of land for sale adjoining the City of Raleigh, containing about one hundred and fifty acres. For terms &c. apply to M. A. Bledsoe, who is authorized to sell it, and will show it to any person desirous of purchasing.
EDWARD MALLETT, Agent.
July 10th, 1850.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.

Notice.
The Southern mouth is said to have been defended by a castle, from which protruded iron machines, which, with a noise resembling thunder, belched forth weighty and round pieces of the same metal, at such enemies ships as had the temerity to attempt the pass. From this pass or inlet, a few miles higher up, was to be seen the ancient city of Smithville, commanding a beautiful view of the vast estuary which spread out before, charmingly ventilated by the balmy Sea breeze, bearing on its wings the magic touch of indolent repose.