

POETRY.

THE IRON HORSE. There were noble steeds in the days of old, They were fierce in battle, in danger bold ; They clanked in armour, and shone in gold. And they bore their riders with lofty pride ; But the Iron Horse, there were none like him ! He whirls you along till your eye is dim, Till your brain is crazed, and your senses swim With the dizzy landscape on either side.

He springs away with a sudden bound. His hoof unshodden, spurns the ground, His nostril dashes its foam around, Like the first faint clouds of a thunder shower; And a stated moment he ever hath. When he rushes forth on his iron path, And wos to him who should rouse his wrath, By curbing him in, beyond the hour !

While other steeds must be champing hay, Must repose by night, and fed by day. Let the Iron Horse have his way, And he asks for no more than his fire and water He wears no bridle, nor curbing chain, He brooks no spur, and he needs no rein : Only set hun forth on the open plain. And he'll be the last horse to weary or loiter

All seasons and tinfes he will fearless brave, Whether hot shines the sun, or the north winds rave; He flies o'er the earth. and he rides the wave. Like a shadowy cloud o'er the harvest fields He neighs aloud, as he dashes by, And the fire sparks flash from his gleaming eye, cellence in beauty, why did the All-Wise And the vales resound, and the hills reply, To the rapid rush of the flashing wheels.

Hisbreath is hot as the siree's blast, As it hisses forth through his iron teeth, And it rolls up slow, when he hurries past, Like the morning mist, in a snowy wreath. And you'd better stand in the van of war, Where the vollied death shots fly free and far, And thousands fall, ere the flight is o'er, Than to cross the nath that he flies upon, Whenever the hurled and loud-rattling car, Like a thunder gust, comes rolling on !

On our mountain ridges his charlots gleam, He follows the track of the winding stream ; He carries us forth from our early homes, To the fairy scenes of the glowing West. Where the Father of Waters in grandeur roams, Through broad savannas in verdure drest. Away ! away ! with his ceaseless roar.

PROFESSOR A. C. BARRY'S TRICOPHEROUS, Or Medicated Compound.

TENFALLIBLE for renewing, invigorating and beautifying the hair, removing scurf, dandruff teguments, and relieving stings, cuts, bruises, sprains Scc., &c. With this preparation "there is no such" word as fail." The first journals in America, medical men of the highest eminence, prominent-ditizens of all professions, and ladies who have used it for years in their dressing rooms and nurseries, admit with one accord, that, for imparing vigor, gloss, lurutiance and curl to the hair, eradicating scurf and dandruff, healing wounds, curing contusions, spraine, stings. &c., and relieving diseases of the skin, the glands and the muscles, it has no equal among the multitude of compounds advertised in the public prints, or used in private practice. In cheapness as well as efficacy, Barry's Tri. opherous is unrivalled. The immense cash sales of the article have enabled the inventor to supply it at retail at twenty five cents per bottle, which is from fifty to one hundred per cent less than the prices of any other preparation now in use. The scientific treatises on the hair and skin (embracing valuable directions for the culture' and precervation of Nature's choicest ornament.) in which each bottle is enclosed, is alone worth the
