POETRY.

Mr. James, the novelist, while on board the steamer Washington, during her late voyage to N.

How gladly she goes, She leaves them clad in snows.

God speed thee, noble Washington. Across the mighty main, And give thee wings to traverse it

Not wrongly hast thou taken. The glorious chieftain's name, Who won his country's liberty, Amidst the battle's flame.

No sordid triumph was the chiet's, No sordid triumph thine, Though war, unwilling, was his task,

When heavy grew the chain, Even of Eagland's Brotherhood, Thou shall unite again.

To bind the east and west, While child and mother, long estranged, Fiv to each other's breast.

And may'st thou, as thou tread'st the sea, Till thy long wanderings cease, Be, like the patriarchal dove, The messenger of peace.

NUMBER 67.

(FORMERLY BELTZHOOVER'S) Head of Light, near Baltimore St. BALTIMORE. ZAHE increased patronage of this long established and popular Hotel, under the management of its present proprietor, has inspired him with further energy and determination, and so expense or attention of his or that of his Assistants will be spared, to maintain with the patrons of the "FOUNTAIN" the reputation it held all over the country, in its palmiest days" of Beltzhoover's conductorship. To increase its former attractions and comforts during the past season, the Hotel has undergone many changes, the Proprietor having made heavy outlays in introducing some of the best and latest improvements -- which, together with its central position, being located in the very heart of the business portion of the city, and near the centre of Baltimore Street, and within a few minutes walk of all the Depots and Steam Boat Landings, it invites the Merchant, the Furmer, the Artisan, as well as the Man of Pleasure to make the FOUNTAIN HOTEL his home during his sojourn in Baltimore.

The Ladies' Department, Containing Private Parlors, Saloons, Reception Rooms, Ordinary, and extensive suites of large and airy Chambers, fitted up in a style and elegance that cannot fail to give satisfaction and comfort. PORTERS are attached to the " Fountain," who may be recognized by the Badges on their Hats, and are always in the attendance at the different Derots and
