HUNTING ADVENTURES IN SOUTH AFRICA. BY RONELEYNN GORDON CUMMING ESQ , OF ALTYRE. From " Five years of a Hunter's Life, in the far interior of South Africa. ENCOUNTER WITH A LIONESS.

Suddenly I observed a number of vultures seated on the plain about a quarter of a mile ahead of us, and close beside them stood a huge lioness, consuming a blesblok which she had killed. She was assisted in het repast by about a dozen jackals, which were feasting along with her in the most friendly and confidential manner. Directing my followers' attention to the spot.] remaked, "I see the lion ;" to which they replied. "Whar ? whar ? Yah ! Almaging ! dat is he ;" and instantly reining in their one, as the first on which I saw and slew the steeds and wheeling about, they pressed their | lofty, graceful-loking giraffe or cameleopard, heels to their horses' sides, and were prepar. with which, during many years of my life, 1 toward a range of mountains some mile to intrusive foot of man, the giraffe is found The first move was to bring her to bay, and on one occasion I counted forty together ; good and lively steed, and shouting to my bout sixteen may be reckoned as the avermen to follow, I flew across the plain, and, age number of a herd. Clinical Lectures are regularly given at the Colge Infirmary and Almehouse. The Infirmary, under the same roof with the College and subject to the entire control of the Faculty, is at all times well filled with medical and surgical cases, and furnishes peculiar facilities for clinical instruction. Many sur gical operations are performed in presence of the class : and the students being freely admitted to the wards, enjoy, under the guidance of the Professors, unusual opportunities for becoming familiar with the symptoms, diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Expenses. Matriculation fee. $5. Professors' fees, $105. Demonstrator's fee, $10. Graduation fee,

The price of board, including fuel, lights and ser vants' attendance, is usually $3 or $3 1-2 per week. The catalogue, &c., containing fuller information concerning the institution, will be forwarded to those applying for it, or specific inquiries will be answered le ter. Address, S. MAUPIN, M. D.
